Farm Bureau Notes

THE BUREAU EDITOR

The Farm Bureau is a state organization that works to improve the lives of farmers by advocating for their interests. The bureau often publishes notes and articles to share information and updates with its members.

Chapel Singers Are a Chautauqua Attraction

At the opening of the Chautauqua, the Chapel Singers will be featured with their program of spirituals, popular songs, and patriotic pieces, sung in a manner that will be appreciated by all. The singing is scheduled for 2:30 p.m. on the second day of the Chautauqua. The Singers have been selected after careful screening and are expected to please the audience with their renditions.

HOUSES GAMBLING AND OUTLAW LAW VIOLATIONS

While gambling is not being practiced in public, it is being carried on by some, especially in the gambling areas around the state. The issue of gambling and outlaw law violations is a serious one that needs to be addressed. The problem should not be allowed to continue indefinitely. It is time for the authorities to take action.

POPULAR COUPLED WEED

On the third of the month, the popular coupled weed was second in wagering at the Marion Fair. It is believed that the race will be one of the most exciting of the season.

Me-o-my,
how you'll take to a pipe—and P. A.!
Before you're a day older you'll want to let the idea slip under your hat that this is the open season to start something with a joyous Jimmy pipe—and some Prince Albert!
Because, a pipe packed with Prince Albert satisfies a man as he was never satisfied before—and keeps him satisfied! And, you can prove it Why—P. A.'savor and fragrance and coolness and its freedom from bite and parch (cut out by our exclusive patent process) are a revelation to the nose to the bowels. No man could get acquainted with a pipe P. A. has made a pipe a thing of joy to expect. No men where one was smoked before.
Ever roll up a cigarette with Prince Albert? Man, man, you've got a party coming your way! Talk about a cigarette smoker; we tell you it's a peach!
