Plans are being made by Washington county farm boys in cooperation with County Agent H. R. Cottrell to organize a boys' livestock judging team from that county to take part in the junior livestock judging contest to be held at the State Fair on September 12 to 17.

OPENED FOR BUSINESS

Wheeler Grocery opened Wednesday for business with a great success. For their opening attraction they had a very impressive window display. In this window was placed a bag of sugar that would have been sold for $25 one year ago. This was compared with what $25 will buy today and it was a very startling comparison.

Mr. Wheeler reports a good trade and that he is pleased with his opening.

BIG BARBECEUE HUGE SUCCESS

Great Number of People Came
From All Parts of County
Crowd Estimated 5000

The grand Barbecue went off in fine style, everyone even the weather man co-operating splendidly.

The committees wish to thank every one personally who helped in this great county get-together. The co-operative spirit and enthusiasm of every one contributed to make this one of Crittenden County's biggest days.

Mr. J. A. Hill wishes to thank everyone who helped in the carcass donations. They were barbecued to the kings taste under the expert management of Tom Sleamaker and Guy Givens.

There was no lack of cold drinking water, the arrangement of the grounds and the service reflected great credit on those respective committees. The finance, the music the provision; the carving; the policing and in fact all of the committees did themselves proud. The good ladies of both town and county generously used their scanty stock of potatoes in the making of the potato salad. The School Improvement Club took charge of the filling of the plates and there was very little waiting.

County Agent Spencer and Mr. Gumbert wish to thank each and every one individually for their splendid co-operation in making the Farm Bureau and Business Men's Barbecue a howling success. Also to thank the business men and others who made donations. The finance committee report that a very liberal donation was made and that all expenses will be met.

The speakers for the occasion were Hon. T. C. Bennett made the opening address followed by W. D. Cannan, J. Alex Hill, Geoffrey Morgan, State Secretary of the Farm Bureau; W. T. Harris of Morganfield; E. J. Kilpatrick and G. M. Gumbert.

The police force was alert and kept splendid order. The fact is that Crittenden County folks do not need police to make them keep order.

Everybody was in a good humor Wednesday. No confusion occurred at any time.

This was a worth while occasion. The social features were refreshing and we all like each other better by living together one day.

Let's have another one!

IN 1860

Henry and Bill Wallace owned 2000 acres at Tolu, most all in pecan and hickory nut orchard and wild hogs, wild turkeys. Bottom land worth $15 per acre; ridgeland $2 per acre in woods.

Four fifths of the western part of Crittenden county was in large white-oak timber, would be worth now $400 per acre. Anon, Bebout had 250 acres of land at $2 per acre in woods known as the Jim Sullenger place. He saved lumber by hand, hewed logs, made the first wooden cane mill; made shoes and killed deer and wild turkey.

In 1860 Marion consisted of one dry goods store, one hotel, one drug store and one blacksmith shop owned by Joe Adams, he made nearly all the plows hoes and harrows. He was the International Co. of that day. He ran a big foundry of honest work. Clothing was made at home without money or price. Tanneries and shoe makers in nearly all homes. We then had good flour mills, good brick yard, good wagon shops; honest officers, good religious shouting truthful church members.

Now we have no brick yard, no tanning factory, no plow and wagon manufacturing company, no woolen mill, no glass factory; no packing-house no improvement since '87 when first car came to Marion.

Wake up and do something to help the farmer. Buy his bacon, pork, potatoes, beans, fruit and corn. Quit buying these things away from home Poor farmer you have got to be a peasant without any freedom. Stop the leak before the vessel sinks.

—Aaron

Rev. James F. Price preached at Dixon last Sunday. He has gone to the Ovoca Bible Conference in Tenn. this week and will be there about ten days.

The Primary Election

EDITORIAL

The primary election is to be held on August 6th for the purpose of each political party's selection of such candidates as the party thinks most fitted for the offices to be filled in the county and district and to nominate such candidates as the parties think will win in the final election.

The Press will seek to steer clear of partisan politics but is in favor of electing such candidates as will be best fit to fill the different offices.

We need men to fill the different offices who will seek to administer the law in keeping with its demands. The man that can and will best fill the office for which he seeks is the man that should have the support of the people. Kinship, politics or friendship ought not to dominate the votes but the man that will serve the people to the best advantage of all concerned. Neither should the candidate's location, in county or town, or religious faith influence the voter, but let his fitness for office be the controlling influence. We want men for officers who are law-abiding, moral and sober and men who love our institutions, men who are capable and who can be relied upon to keep and enforce the law. It is the duty of the voters to seek out from among the candidates the most suitable men for the different offices and support them. Vote as you think best and let the other fellow do the same.

TRANSFER COMPANY'S BARN DESTROYED

The barn belonging to the City Coal and Transfer Company was destroyed by fire last Friday night. The fire broke out about 10:15 and was noticed first by people returning from the entertainment at the school house. When it was first seen the fire was too far advanced to save the barn.

Five head of stock were in the barn at the time of the fire and all efforts to save them from burning were unavailing. The three horses and two mules were valued at $750. Besides the live stock a motor truck valued at $2,690 and about 12 tons of hay; 50 bushels of corn and 30 bushels of oats were destroyed.

The truck that was destroyed belonged to Mr. R. S. Elkins and was partly covered by insurance. The barn was insured for $600 and the stock for $300. It is not known how the fire originated.

Had it not been for the hard work done by the fire department the office which stood near the barn would have been destroyed. Some damage was done to it but it has already been repaired.

WHITE LEGHORNS LEAD IN KENTUCKY EGG RACE

LEXINGTON, KY.—A flock of 362 white leghorn hens owned by Joseph A. Anderson of Covington led the state in 47 demonstration flocks in June production with a record of 19.5 eggs as an average for each hen, according to an announcement made by J. H. Martin in charge of the College of Agriculture poultry work. Thirty two white Plymouth rocks was second with an average of 17.1 eggs a hen while a flock of 37 white plymouth rocks was third having produced an average of 17 eggs per hen during the month.

ANNOUNCES CANDIDACY

Mr. A. S. Cannan announces in this number of the Press his candidacy for City Marshall of Marion at the November election.

Mr. Cannan is well and favorably known in Marion and for several years was Marshall of the city. Mr. Cannan informs the Press that he has held his citizenship in this city and has always voted here. He and family will soon return to this city to reside.

HURRICANE DEDICATION

The Methodist church at Hurricane will be dedicated Sunday. Arrangements have been completed and a large crowd is expected. There will be a basket dinner and everyone is invited to attend.

Rev. W. F. Hogard will preach the dedicatory sermon. Billy Yates will have charge of the singing and the Marion Methodist Quartette will sing.

YOU CAN SAVE

Five miles at least in your hauling by going to the Gladstone Mines on the hill near Nunn's Switch ten miles from Marion. Our tipple will hold 1000 bushels of coal, no delay in loading. Screened or forked coal 10c. Quality the highest in this section.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC AT CRAYNE

The Cumberland Presbyterian Sunday-school at Crayne went on their annual picnic last Saturday. They met at Emmaus church and the good people of that place had the grounds cleaned nice, the spring was in fine shape and to say we had a nice time is putting it too mildly.

There was about 175 people present. Rev. Oakley preached at eleven o'clock and then at noon dinner was spread. The people of Crayne do not do things by halves and that dinner was ample proof of the fact.

After everyone had eaten until satisfied the choirs of Emmaus and Crayne entertained the crowd with some songs.

The Crayne Sunday School extends thanks to the people of Emmaus for their kind hospitality.

ARBOR MEETING AT MEXICO

To the Crittenden Press:

I wish to say to the good people of Crittenden county and surrounding counties that the arbor meeting at Mexico which was conducted by the Rev. J. C. Lilly of Fredonia and continued for two weeks closed on Saturday July 23 and resulted in 23 professions of faith in Christ who united with the Sulphur Springs Baptist church. On Sunday afternoon the baptizing took place at the Alumnum Ore Lake.

Our church has been greatly revived and now our prayers are that God may use Bro. Lilly and thru his work God may be glorified. We wish to thank Miss Sarah Jackson for her splendid service rendered us by giving us the splendid music. Miss Sarah is a very fine Christian lady.

We were proud of the co-operation of all Christian people from other churches in this revival and pray God richest blessings to go with them thru life.

The attendance during the meeting was the largest ever witnessed at church in our town and Rev. Lilly did some excellent preaching.

Farm Bureau Notes

What I Saw and Heard

at Junior Week
The beginning of my trip was the train ride. That was a treat to me for it was my first ride, I saw lots on my way up there. I passed the city of Louisville and the Capitol of our State at night and the Capitol was lit up and it was beautiful. We got to Lexington at eight thirty o'clock and Mr. Garside and Mr. Buckler, State Club Leader, met us there and took us to the Campus where we stayed while we were there. I heard lots of fine talks while I was there. Tuesday I heard Mr. Kelly talk about gasoline engines and about limerock. Next a lady talked about health then we went to the Chapel and heard Dean Cooper talk about what boys and girls ought to do. The next talk was on Dairy Cattle and the next was Dr. Funkhouser's talk about the desert.

Wednesday I heard a lady talk on What America Wants Boys and girls to do. And then a man talked on Beef Cattle and Dr. Funkhouser about what they eat in the desert.

Thursday I heard Mr. Kelly talk about lacing belting and another man about the use of limestone on the farm. Then I went to the chapel and heard a man talk about the University of Kentucky, what it was good for; and then we heard a talk about sheep and then we went back to the Campus and got in a truck and went down town. I saw the Henry Clay homestead and then went to the Fayette National Bank Building where I rode on an elevator up to the eleventh story and looked over the city. Afterwards we got in the truck and went out by the race track.

Friday I went to the swimming pool at the Y. M. C. A. and watched the boys swim and then went to hear Mr. Kelly talk about Tractors; then to hear a man talk about cultivation of crops and then to the Chapel where a man from across the Ohio River talked about how boys and girls ought to be taught then another man talked about hogs and Dr. Funkhouser talked about snakes and this is the end of my story at the Campus.

I stayed in Lexington Saturday and Saturday night. Miss Myrtle Glass took me over part of the city. I saw Henry Clay Monument and the fastest race horse in the world, "Man o'War". These are the most important things I saw on my trip.

Written by George Franklin Walker, son of B. F. Walker, relating his experiences during Junior Week at Lexington.

A series of four community meetings in the interests of sheep culling campaign which will be conducted in Crittenden county by the Extension Division of the College of Agriculture in co-operation with Co. Agent Spencer was announced today.

August 1: the first meeting will be held at Union School at Levas; The second on August 2 at Forest Grove school and the third in the August 3 at Owen school and the 4th at Dempsey School on August 4th.

R. C. Miller, sheep extension expert from the College will address the farmers at the meeting and discuss problems of sheep raising with them. The lectures will be illustrated with lantern slides and motion pictures. The day following the lecture a demonstration will be held on some farm in the community to show farmers how to tell the profitable sheep from the unprofitable in their flocks.

"No phase of farming offers greater possibilities for profit than sheep raising provided proper attention is given to the selection of foundation stock and subsequent mating in order to produce the best lambs as well as the largest wool clip." County Agent said in speaking of the campaign. "It is hoped that the campaign will help farmers in their sheep raising problems to the extent that they may increase the profits from their flocks."

Mrs. Guy Givens, mother and brother motored to Cartersville and Marion, Ill., last week. Mrs. Givens returned this week but Mrs. Hoover and Roy stayed.

Watts Franklin, who has been ill at his home in the Hebron section, has recovered and was in Marion Saturday.

INCLUDE VEGETABLES IN THE WINTER DIET

Necessary During Cold Weather as Well as Summer.

Tired-Out Feeling Which Many People Have at End of Winter Comes From Lack of Supply of Garden Truck and Fruits.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Vegetables should be freely included in the winter diet as well as in the summer one. Doctors say that that tired-out feeling which many people have at the end of winter—"spring fever"—often comes from a lack of fruits and vegetables in the winter diet. Plenty of vegetables keep the children well and make their meals more appetizing. Vegetables mashed and put through a sieve are more easily digested by little children.

Salts of many kinds are needed by the body, or it will not work smoothly. Vegetables and fruit are rich in them and if you eat a variety you are sure to get all the kinds of salt you need.

When the water in which vegetables are cooked is thrown away, valuable salts are often wasted. Sometimes the flavor is not desirable, but if it is good save this water for soup or gravy. An even better process is to cook the vegetables in as little water as possible so there is none left to drain off, or bake or steam it. Canned and dried vegetables often need only skillful seasoning to make them taste as good as the fresh variety.

Canned corn is very good when turned into a baking dish with the addition of milk and seasoning added, heated through in the oven, and allowed to brown on top. Outside stalks of celery, a green pepper, or both, chopped and added before baking, will vary the flavor of the dish.

Spinach Leaf.

A small can of spinach, chard, or beet tops, combined with rice or bread crumbs, will serve seven or eight people if it is made into a loaf. Asparagus or string beans are also good served in this way:

2 cupsful cooked lima beans.
1 can chopped spinach.
4 cupsful boiled rice.
2 cupsful white sauce.
1 red pepper.

Make a thick white sauce of two cupsful of milk, four tablespoonfuls of flour, four tablespoonfuls of butter, and one teaspoonful of salt. Melt salt and mix with flour, add to milk and stir over the fire until it thickens. Mix with the rice, chopped spinach and pepper. Form into a loaf and bake 20 or 30 minutes.

Investigations with dried vegetables, which have been conducted in the experimental kitchen of the United States Department of Agriculture, show that provided the dried vegetables are of good quality they are quite as satisfactory when they are cooked without previous soaking, as when soaked, and oftentimes better.

MAKE SAVORY FRUIT PASTES

Combination of Different Kinds of Fruits Is Excellent—Canned Goods Can Be Used.

Fruit pastes are made from the edible portion of fruit which after cooking has been passed through a sieve and cooked again until the excess water is driven off. Only a small amount of sugar is required. A combination of different kinds of fruit pulp makes a delightfully flavored paste, but peaches alone make a delicious one. Canned fruit can also be used to make paste. When the pulp is boiled down until very thick, pour it in 1/4-inch layers on marble or glass slabs or on a platter. Place where there is a strong circulation of air and allow the paste to dry for two or three days. When it is sufficiently dry, cut it into 1-inch squares. Roll in granulated sugar and place again in a draft. Paste may be packed in tin boxes, glass jars, or paraffin-coated containers.

PASTRY SHELLS

Bake pastry in or on the outside of muffin pans and fill these shells with jam, preserves, or well-sweetened stewed fruit. With or without the addition of whipped cream these form a delicious dessert.

These shells may be filled with creamed chicken, creamed peas, or other creamed vegetables, adding an attractive dish for another meal.

Mildewed leather may be cleaned with vasoline.

Long handles on brooms, brushes and dustpans save the back.

Dinner plates should always be sent to the table warm enough not to cool the food served on them.

To remove grease spots from silk, take a lump of magnesia, rub it wet on spot, let dry, then brush the powder off.

Keep empty spoons and slippers over the nails in the hookless closet. They are a great protection to the clothes.

KENTUCKY GIRLS CHOOSE COLLEGE IN THE OZARKS

Junior College For Girls at Eureka Springs, Arkansas, Attracts National Attention

In the heart of the Ozarks, that section of the United States made famous by song and story, particularly by the songs of Harold Bell Wright, is situated a boarding Junior College for girls and young women, where students from all over the United States assemble for high education in Literature and Fine Arts. The institution's name is CRESCENT COLLEGE, located at Eureka Springs, Ark., commonly known as the "Switzerland of America."

A native son of Kentucky, Richard E. Thompson, born at Mayfield in 1878, an M. A. graduate from the University of Michigan, is the head of this select and limited school. Twenty girls are accepted each year and they are carefully chosen from several times that number of candidates for admission. There is always a long waiting list at the opening each September. President Thompson announces that Crescent will increase the enrollment limit to twenty this year and preference will be given to Kentucky girls.

It is accredited by all State Universities, and unexcelled Conservatory advantages are offered. The College encompasses wholesome recreations and maintains a beautiful Lake and Club House for the students.

For Catalog, View Book and particulars, address CRESCENT COLLEGE, Box 191, Eureka Springs, Ark.

"Ouija! What's the good word?"

MY YOUNG sister,
HAS A Ouija board,
AND SHE believes it,
AND TALKS to Noah,
AND I think she talks,
TO HER best fellow,
WHO'S DEAD but doesn't know it,
AND I used to give her,
THE LOUD, rude laugh,
BUT I'M sorry now,
BECAUSE LAST night,
I WAS home alone,
SO I got the board,
AND PUT in a call,
FOR JOHN Barleycorn,
AND OTHER departed spirits,
BUT THE line was busy,
FOR NOTHING happened,
THEN I cheated a little,
AND IT spelled this,
"GRAMASHOTTA SEVEN."

SO I shut off quick,
TO HEAD off any,
FURTHER FAMILY scandal,
THEN I stopped to smoke,
A CIGARETTE,
AND AFTER a while,
I CRANKED up weejee,
AND ALL of a sudden,
IT STARTED off,
AND QUICK as a flash,
IT SAID something,
"THEY SATISFY."

"SATISFY"—that's the good word. Just light up a Chesterfield and see what experts can do with fine Turkish and Domestic tobaccos when they blend them in that can't-be-outripped Chesterfield way. You'll say "they satisfy."

Did you know about the Chesterfield package of 10?

Special Sale of Coldstream Durocs

At Coldstream Farm, August 16, 1921

This sale having been decided on, nothing is to be left undone to make it a success from the bidder's viewpoint. A goodly number of our choicest young sows will go under the hammer—beautifully bred, massive individuals, each weighing 500 lbs. or more.

The sows are all bred for early September farrowing—mostly to Walt's Great Top Col., a splendid young boar, standing, as a senior yearling, 44 inches high, on a 10-inch bone, with 83 inches over the back between the eyes and root of tail.

Terms if Desired—Terms will be arranged for those who so desire and can furnish satisfactory bank references. Remember the date—also the fact that adverse market conditions for us mean advantageous transactions for the purchaser. For particulars, address

EAT PLENTY OF FRESH SPINACH

Vegetable Is Exceptionally Rich in Iron and One of Most Important Vitamines.

RARELY COOKED PERFECTLY

Except for Special Reasons Simplest Methods Are Best in Cooking—It Takes Much Patience and Water to Wash Clean.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

One of the first vegetables in the garden or on the market in the early spring is that reliable stand-by—spinach. The shoots should be cut regularly; if not, the old shoots become tough and rank flavored.

Spinach furnishes little body energy, but it is exceptionally rich in iron and is one of the important vitamins, and so is a valuable food, say specialists in the United States Department of Agriculture. It contains little starch and only a suggestion of sugar, and is therefore one of the vegetables that physicians include in the bill of fare of many invalids who require a diet without these carbohydrates.

Cheap in First Cost.

Like most other vegetables, it is rarely cooked to perfection, yet it is not difficult to prepare. Except for special reasons, the simplest methods are the best for this vegetable. No matter how cheap the raw spinach may be, it is always expensive in one thing—labor. It takes a good deal of time, water, and patience to wash it clean.

To clean the spinach cut off the roots, break the leaves apart and drop them into a large pan of water, rinse them well, and lift them into a second pan of water. Do not pour the water off over the spinach or the grit that has been washed off will get back on the leaves. Continue washing in clean waters until there is not a trace of sand on the bottom of the pan. If the spinach is at all wilted, let it stand in cold water until it becomes fresh and crisp. Drain from this water and blanch as follows:

For half a peck of spinach put in a large saucepan 3 quarts of boiling water and 1 tablespoon of salt. Put the drained spinach in the boiling water and let it boil 10 minutes, counting from the time it begins to boil. When it begins to boil, draw the cover of the saucepan a little to one side to allow the steam to escape. At the end of 10 minutes pour the spinach into a colander, and when the hot water has passed off pour cold water over it. Let it drain well and mince coarse or fine, as is suitable for the manner in which it is to be served.

One peck of spinach will make about 1 1/2 pints when blanched and minced.

Spinach With Egg.
1/2 peck spinach.
3 tablespoons butter or other fat
1/2 teaspoon pepper.
2 eggs.
3 teaspoons salt.

Wash and blanch the spinach, using two teaspoons of the salt in the water in which the vegetable is boiled. Drain the blanched spinach and chop rather fine, return it to the saucepan.

Spinach is an Especially Valuable Vegetable.

and add the salt, pepper, and butter or other fat. Place on the fire and cook ten minutes. Heap in a mound on a hot dish and garnish with the hard-boiled eggs, cut in slices.

Spinach Cooked Without Water.

Fresh spinach when washed holds enough water for cooking. Put the spinach into a covered saucepan and cook for ten minutes. Press down and turn the spinach over several times during the cooking. At the end of ten minutes turn the spinach into a chopping bowl, and mince rather fine. Return to the saucepan and add the seasonings, allowing for half a peck of spinach two generous tablespoons of butter or other fat and a teaspoon of salt. Simmer for ten minutes; or if very tender, five minutes will be sufficient.

Spinach cooked in this manner will retain all its salts and the flavor will be stronger than when blanched (boiled in water). In young, tender spinach this is not objectionable, but when the overgrown vegetable is cooked in its own moisture the flavor is strong and somewhat acrid.

Spinach With Cream.

New Prices on Titan and International Tractors Now Lowest Ever Quoted

EFFECTIVE immediately, we make another big reduction in the prices of Titan and International tractors. These reductions wipe out all former advances and place Titan and International tractors at the lowest prices at which they have ever been sold.

International 8-16
$900

This price is about one-fourth less than the price at which the 8-16 sold prior to March of this year. The new figure is the lowest at which it was ever sold. The new price includes all the necessary equipment—platform, fenders, governor, belt pulley—features which must be paid for extra on some tractors.

Titan 10-20

This is the lowest price ever quoted on the Titan, considering the equipment now included (formerly sold extra). Up to March of this year the price was $1,200—today it is $900. At this figure the Titan 3-plow tractor is the best value in the farm power field.

The International 15-30 has been reduced to $1,750—lower than it has ever been before. The man who needs a 4-plow tractor cannot find a better investment than the 15-30 at this price. (All prices f. o. b. Chicago.)

Considering quality, power, equipment, and the service which follows every machine, Titan and International tractors at these new low prices are unquestionably the best buy in the tractor market.

As these prices have been made regardless of manufacturing costs, we do not guarantee to maintain them.

These prices certainly justify the immediate purchase of a tractor. Put it at the horse-killing work of hot weather plowing, and your fall and winter belt work.

See our tractor dealer for full information on deliveries and terms.

W. K. POWELL,
Tax Commissioner Crittenden County

MANY of you car owners have learned that quantity production of itself doesn't put long and satisfactory service into a tire.

You find something more to your liking in the policy of the makers of Hartford Tires.

They think too much of the Hartford Tire reputation to produce a single tire beyond the limit of careful and painstaking workmanship. And more people daily appreciate the real economy in this method of tire-building.

To the Voters of Crittenden and Livingston Counties:

I am a candidate for re-election as Representative for this District, subject to the action of the Republican Primary, Saturday, August 6, 1921, and through this letter I most earnestly ask for your vote and influence in my behalf. I am asking for re-election, believing that my recent experience in the Legislature better qualifies me to render a more efficient and intelligent service in that body than was possible for me to give at the last Session, or could possibly be given by any one who has never filled the place.

There are a few people who claim that this is Livingston county's time to furnish the candidate. Some years ago, when nominations were made by Committees, a rotation custom was observed in selecting the nominees for Representative, but since the Primary election law was passed the naming of all candidates for public offices, to be voted for at the November election, is placed in the hands of the people—the voters themselves may decide who shall be their nominees, instead of choosing them according to any "custom," rotation," or "agreement" method.

My opponents are seeking the nomination on a "rotation" platform, and give no other reason why they should be nominated. The best interests of the people and the manner in which their Representative will safeguard those interests is of VASTLY MORE IMPORTANCE than merely the question of which county's "time" it is to have the candidate.

At the last Session I voted for the new school law, which was passed for the purpose of giving us better schools and more efficient teachers. I am in favor of amending that law wherever its provisions are not satisfactory.

I voted for a bill which, if it had become a law, would have reduced the tax rate on farm lands from 40c to 25c on the $100.

I voted for a bill to "exempt from taxation farm products belonging to the producer and in the hands of vendee or agent."

I voted for every bill that would have exempted the dog from taxation.

I voted for a measure that provides for a substantial reduction in freight rates on ground limestone for agricultural purposes.

I favored a measure that would place a tax of 2c per ton on the production of coal. Oil and gas production is taxed, farm property is taxed, business institutions are taxed, so why not place a small tonnage tax on the coal mining industry, which should bring a large amount of revenue to the State should be the means of helping to reduce the burdensome tax rate on real estate.

Some of these measures did not become laws, but are mentioned in order to show the people my stand on those matters that directly concern a large majority of our citizenship.

Hoping that my candidacy may receive favorable consideration at your hands, and renewing my promise to serve your interests to the utmost of my ability, I am,

Yours very sincerely,

ing will furnish sufficient moisture for their cooking.

Arrange the peppers on end in a baking dish, having water with salt, pepper, and butter poured in to the depth of about one inch. Place the dish in a hot oven, cook covered for 15 minutes; then uncover and bake and cook for 10 or 15 minutes longer, or until the peppers are perfectly tender. An addition to the mushrooms of chopped cooked chicken or veal is a pleasing variation.

Mushrooms With Bacon.

Fry the bacon, and on removing it from the frying pan keep it hot; cook the mushrooms on each side in the "frying" and serve on a platter with the strips of bacon arranged as a border.

Several species are good prepared in this manner, but it is especially well suited to the common cultivated mushroom.

RENEW YOUR WAR ON COMMON HOUSE FLY

Presence of Pests Indicates Insanitary Conditions.

They Are Menace to Health Because They Carry Disease Germs to Exposed Foods—Of Importance to Prevent Breeding.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

The presence of flies is an indication of uncleanness, insanitary conditions, and improper disposal of substances in which they breed. They are not only annoying; they are actually dangerous to health, because they may carry disease germs to exposed foods.

It is therefore important to know where and how they breed, and to apply such knowledge to combating them. A bulletin issued by the United States Department of Agriculture gives information on this subject. Besides giving directions for ridding the house of flies by the use of screens, fly papers, poisons and flytraps, it lays especial emphasis on the explanation of methods of eliminating breeding places and preventing the breeding of flies. Address the United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., and a copy of this publication will be sent you free.

POULTRY PACKED FOR CITY TRADE

Producers Must Carefully Study and Cater to Peculiar Requirements of Market.

NEAT PACKAGE IS ESSENTIAL

Specialists of Department of Agriculture Give Directions for Killing, Dressing and Packing—Dry Picking Favored.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Poultry profits often depend largely on the marketing, and the producer should study demands to learn how, where, and when to dispose of his products to the best advantage. It often pays to dress the fowl at home for certain markets, the difference between the prices for live and dressed fowl making it worth while.

Attractive appearance is of much importance in selling poultry; therefore, the producer who plans to market his poultry dressed should study the details of killing, dressing and packing, in order to prepare the products in the best possible manner. Requirements for dressing and packing vary somewhat in different markets, and it will pay the producer to learn any special demands of the distributing point to which he intends shipping.

Killing, Dressing, and Packing.

The birds should be kept without feed from 18 to 24 hours before killing, unless they are to be drawn, specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture say. In the latter case, they should have no feed for at least 10 hours before killing. When ready to kill, suspend the fowl by the leg and, using a knife, cut the vein at the back of the throat through the mouth. As soon as this vein is cut run the point of the knife through the roof of the mouth into the brain, which causes the bird to lose all sense of feeling. The fowl can be paralyzed also by a blow on the head, instead of piercing the brain.

In most markets dry-picked birds are preferred. Immediately after killing, while the bird is still bleeding, the picker removes the feathers, being careful not to tear the skin. If the picker waits until the bird is nearly cold, removing the feathers will be more difficult. As soon as picked, the fowls should be hung in a cool place until thoroughly cold. If the weather is warm and the fowls are to be packed in ice, they should be placed in a tank of ice water and left until all the animal heat has left the body.

When birds are scalded before removing the feathers, they are immersed in water slightly below the boiling point, as soon as they are through bleeding. The birds should be immersed three or four times and then picked clean, care being taken not to break the skin. Be careful not to over-soak, as this will cause the outer surface of the skin to rub off. Then it is placed in cold water, where it should remain for 15 to 20 minutes. If the fowl is to be shipped dry it should be hung up until the skin becomes thoroughly dry.

Poultry which is to be sold direct to the consumer should be drawn before it is cooled. Poultry which is sold to the market should not be drawn, as it will keep better not drawn than if drawn. A slit large enough to admit the fingers is made from near the end of the keel bone toward the vent. Then cut carefully around the vent and pull out the intestines, leaving in all the other organs, unless the consumer's requirements are otherwise.

Should Be Packed Solidly.

When the birds have been thoroughly cooled, they are ready for packing. Packages for dressed poultry vary, but they should be neat and small enough to be easily handled. Line the inside of the boxes or barrels with clean, unprinted paper, and pack the birds solidly, so they will not shift in the package, but be careful not to bruise them. For delivery to retail customers, pasteboard boxes of sufficient size to hold one or two birds are very attractive. When poultry is to be packed in ice, barrels are generally used, packing them with alternate layers of ice.

HELPFUL HINTS FOR POISON IVY RELIEF

Grease or Oil Tends to Dissolve and Spread Infection.

Specialists of Department of Agriculture Favor Applications of Solutions of Cooking Soda or of Epsom Salts.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

In the early stages of ivy poisoning remedies having a fatty or oily base, such as ointments, should not be used, as the grease or oil tends to dissolve and spread the poison, according to specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture. Instead they advise simple remedies such as local applications of solutions of cooking soda or of Epsom salt, one or two heaping teaspoonfuls to a cupful of water. Fluid extract of grindelia, diluted with four to eight parts of water, is often used.

Solutions of this kind may be applied with light bandages or clean cloths, which should be kept moist, and should be changed and discarded frequently to avoid infection. During the night, or when moist applications cannot be used, the poisoned surfaces should be carefully cleaned and dried and left exposed to the air rather than tightly bandaged. In the later stage, after the toxic material has exhausted itself, zinc-oxide ointment and similar mild antiseptic and astringent applications hasten healing.

These are a few of the helpful hints concerning ivy poisoning contained in Farmers' Bulletin 1193, which tells also how to distinguish between poison ivy and poison sumac. The bulletin is illustrated with pictures of the two plants, which are often confused.

TO SWEETEN RANCID BUTTER

Melt and Skim It and Add Piece of Toast Free From Burn—Offensive Taste Removed.

To sweeten rancid butter melt the butter and skim it. Then put into it a piece of toast free from burn. In a few minutes it will lose its offensive taste and smell, which the toast has absorbed.

CARROTS SERVED WITH PEAS

Dressed With Cream Sauce, Well Seasoned, or With Melted Butter, They Are Very Good.

Carrots can be served with several other vegetables. They are very good served with green peas, either fresh or canned. They can be dressed with cream sauce, well seasoned, or with melted butter and pepper and salt.

PROTECTION AGAINST MOTHS

Few Cents' Worth of Tar Paper Placed in Boxes and Closets Will Prove Efficient.

Pieces of tar paper laid in fur boxes and in closets are a protection against moths. Five cents will buy enough for all the packing boxes and closets of a large house for a year.

A pitcher of cold water in the room will absorb gases.

More food is required in cold weather than in hot.

Keep your house clear of rubbish and keep disease germs down.

Alternate layers of noodles and jam baked until brown make a good desert.

Green corn, radishes, cucumbers and tomatoes should not be fed to children under six years of age.

Celery stuffing for meats is delicious. Walnut meats and bread crumbs should be used in the stuffing.

Never beat or stir cereals or rice with a spoon; use a silver fork. A spoon makes them pasty.
