A Card to the Public

Owing to my home agains I have been unable to make a thorough canvass of the county as I would like to have done and in order to get myself square before the people I take advantage of this opportunity of telling you briefly through the columns of the Press my wants and desires.

I want to be your next Republican nominee for the office of Jailer of Crittenden county. I started in good faith and my faith has increased all along the way. On next Saturday the voters must choose their nominee for Jailer. I think I have made myself clear with every person to whom I have talked in regard to the matter, that I am looking to the future for better things, for a better town and a better county.

I have never done much except fight with sassafras bushes on the farm and some of you at least, know that the farm that produces a good crop of sassafras is not much good for anything else. I have never had a chance, but on next Saturday, I sincerely believe that the people of Crittenden county are going to give me a chance to prove myself worthy of the place for which I have worked so hard and faithful.

I fully believe that any man who wants a chance to do something and has the energy and backbone to stay with it is going to get it. So hoping that on August 6th that you will have decided that this is the one to stay with it. and give me your hearty support. In return I promise you the best possible service that lays within my power.

Yours for a better Crittenden,

Farm Bureau News

Sheep Raising

County Agent Spencer is making a special effort this week to increase the number of sheep in Crittenden county.

Mr. Richard C. Miller, sheep specialist from the University of Kentucky is here to assist him with the campaign. Mr. Miller has been over most of the county and finds it especially suited for sheep.

Cost accounts show that when taken over a period of years sheep make more profits on the money invested in the industry than any other class of livestock.

Most every farmer who practices general farming should be able to keep 20 or 30 ewes and a good Hampshire or Southdown Ram at but little cost. A good flock of this size would consume much ruffage that without them would go to waste and if kept long enough to give them a decent chance would give a good account of themselves.

There was never a better time to start with sheep than right now because breeding stock is very low and the future of the sheep industry looks unusually bright. Several farmers of Crittenden have already arranged to start new flocks this year and it is hoped that many others will do likewise.

The Breeders Sale at the Burbon Stock Yards in Louisville August 11 will give the farmers a good opportunity to get some good breeding rams at reasonable prices. Several thousand grade ewes and 200 purebred rams will be offered at this sale.

Any one who has a dishpan, tub, plate or any other article from the barbecue that does not belong to them are requested to get in touch with the County Agent. Several articles are misplaced and the sooner we get them straightened up the better it will be.

Poultry Culling

Thursday and Friday of last week County Agent Spencer and J. R. Smyth, field agent in poultry, gave seven culling demonstrations in various parts of the county. There was an average attendance of 22 at these demonstrations and the majority of those present signified their intention of going back home and culling their flock. We found somewhat more than 1-3 of the flocks on the average that were boarders. Learn to cull your own flock and get more profit from your poultry. There will be a number more demonstrations held in the county and interested parties are urged to get in touch with County Agent Spencer.

Clean Poultry Yard Checks Summer Roup

Keeping coops and yards clean and allowing the chicks good range over grassy places will do much toward preventing summer roup in the flock of young birds according to poultry men of the College of Agriculture. The coops should be ventilated to allow the entrance of plenty of fresh air and in no case should be overcrowded with birds. When summer roup becomes prevalent in the flock the use of a disinfectant should be used to control it. Adding what potassium permanganate will stay on a dime to each gallon of drinking water will prevent the spread of the disease.

Free Chicago Trip For Club Champions

State Club champions in the dairy calf, poultry and pig projects who will be elected at the Kentucky State Fair September 12-17 will be awarded a free trip to the 1921 Chicago International live stock Exposition, according to an announcement by C. W. Baehler, state leader of Junior Agricultural Club Work from the College of Agriculture. The Championships in the various projects will be awarded on the basis of the record book kept by the club member and the exhibit which it will accompany.

CAMPING TRIP

James Morehead, Thomas Cochran, Thomas Stephens, Howard Meroney, Bruce Nunn, Gilbert Denny, Kenneth Enoch, Hick Moore, Thomas Reed, M. Y. Nunn, G. P. Dillon, C. S. Nunn and C. L. Cassidy left Monday to take an outing.

READY TO LET CONTRACTS FOR RIVER HIGHWAY

State Department Awaits Approval of Federal Bureau

Just as soon as the Bureau of Public Roads at Washington notifies the State Highway Commission of Kentucky of its approval of the plans bids for the bit the Ohio River road through Livingston county will be asked. This was made sure by Commissioner Ben Weille of the State road commission from State Highway Engineer Joe S. Boggs.

According to Engineer Boggs the road through Livingston county will be started and finished as soon as possible. Livingston county has been the hold out on the road longer than any of the other counties mostly because of the fact that the right of way through that county would not be and has not yet been granted.

Col. Weille, together with business men of Paducah are to go to Smithland this week for a conference with land owners in that county in an effort to secure the right of way.

Commissioner Weille stated that he did not expect to experience any great trouble in securing the right of way through the Panhandle.

A JOY RIDE

Tuesday of last week Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Yates, Miss Eva and Billy Jr. their visitors, Mr. and Mrs. Miller and daughter of Evansville; Miss Cora Duncan of Owensboro; Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Yates and children, Albert and Dorothy; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Guess, Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Clark; Mrs. L. E. Guess and daughter, Bonnie; and Mr. Eugene Guess all motored to Kuttawa and Eddyville and spent the day most enjoyably. After going thru the Penn they returned to the big spring where they had a refreshing picnic. All say it was sure a gala day.

TO BUILD GOOD ROAD

The pike from Princeton to the Christian county line via Scottsburg and Cedar Bluff is the greatest future project we have yet to learn of. Money has been appropriated by bond selling for the construction and the pike is sure going through. Mr. Waggener of Princeton accompanied by a number of surveyors surveyed the route last week—Princeton Leader.

A Last Appeal to the Voters

My canvass has been thorough, having gone into practically every home in the county. Your treatment to me has been exceedingly gracious for which I extend to you my heart full of thanks. I shall ever remember each of you kindly.

I started in the race to win. I have been a laborer all my life, having fought the waves as a laborer. I worked for one man for ten years.

Now I want to be your jailor and ask your support because I am confident I am capable of serving you satisfactorily.

In this manner I make my appeal that you remember me when you go to the booth.

I thank you.

LIGHTNING STRIKES TWO DWELLINGS

The residence of Albert Travis on East Bellville Street was struck by lightning during the electric storm Sunday afternoon. The house was set on fire but by quick action the flames were soon extinguished.

The residence of T. H. Cochran was struck by lightning during the storm. The roof and flue were torn up and damaged some; the lightning ran down the kitchen flue and out the cook stove. The cook reported that flames of fire blazed out of the stove door.

DEDICATION AT HURRICANE

A large crowd assembled on the sacred spot of old Hurricane grounds last Sunday to attend the dedication services of the new church. No better built church is in the county and it is nicely furnished. The house and furniture cost over $4000.

The building committee composed of Josh Hamilton, S. R. Lucas and A. B. Griffin deserves much credit for the splendid house.

The Marion Quartet was present and furnished some great music. The sermon was preached by Rev. W. F. Hogard. An offering of $500 was taken during the rain.

CITY COUNCIL MEETS

The following ordinances passed Monday night when the City Council met:

DIED AT WASHINGTON

Mr. John S. Heath died in Washington D. C. Tuesday of last week after a short illness. He was on a visit to his sister when death came. The remains were brought to Marion last Saturday and taken to Zion for burial.

Mr. Heath was 75 years old and the county lost one of its best citizens by his death.

VOTE FOR W.H.GRAVES FOR JAILER

His name is first on the ballot in the jailer's race.

He has served as a member of Fiscal Court of Crittenden county. Examine his record as a member of that body. He is willing to abide by your decision.

Some things he did NOT do as a member of the Fiscal Court:

- 1—He did NOT vote to raise his own salary.
- 2—He did NOT vote to have a telephone put in his own home at the county's expense
- 3—He did NOT ask that he be allowed $75 to remove a single stump from the public highway
- 4—He did NOT vote to spend hundreds of dollars of the county's money on road grades which have long ago been "junked."

Examine his record. See where he stood. Examine the record of his opponents and see where they have stood on the above questions.

PASSED AWAY

W. D. Braswell of this city was taken violently ill Sunday with acute indigestion and died Tuesday afternoon. He was seventy-five years old.

A Last Word before the Primary

I have canvassed all it was possible for me to do; to those I was unable to see as well as those I did see, I deeply appreciate your past favors and will always try to show my appreciation of your support.

I have taken no advantage of any of my opponents—nor will I do so and I will support any of them should one be nominated over me.

Hoping my friends will not forget me at the Primary, I thank you.

W. E. BELT

To the Voters of Crittenden County

Again I want to say that it is through a real progressive motive that I have asked you for this special favor, there is not a man in the catalogue for Jailer that needs, or would appreciate this favor more than I would. So far there seems no doubt but that I am considerable in the lead and I ask my friends to hold fast and pay no heed to the schemes and unfair means by which some of my opponents are trying to break me down and build themselves up on my ruins.

Friends remember you find the most clubs in the best apple tree and I have true records in my pocket to prove that falsehoods have been liberally handed out against me. I have fought bravely to the last ditch and I shall have a good conscience to cheer me by the way.

If I have failed to see you please do not feel slighted for I have had a very sick child through the last 15 days of the campaign, and duty kept me at home.

Give me your fair consideration and I shall at least be content with your decision.

With good wishes to all I remain your servant,

A FREE PEOPLE

The time has been when a man or two in the county could dictate the election but the same does not happen now. The fact is when it is rumored that a candidate is the product of a man or a set of men, it spells his defeat and should spell his defeat.

We are a free people and ought to be able to know how to vote. It now takes an American's blood boil for anyone to seek to use influences to force him to vote other than his choice. Hands off when it comes to the ballot box, please.

Inform yourself Mr. Voter and go and vote for the man that will make the best officer.

BOYS

There is something peculiar about boys. They have acute sensibilities when not asleep. They see, hear and feel all the time. Their composition is a little peculiar; that of wax with a slight mixture of steel. Hence they are easily impressed by sound, sight or feeling.

It takes a boy to make a man or grown up boy. Many boys only make men in stature, never reach manhood.

Two important factors determine the whole future of the boy; one his parentage; the other his environment. A boy with rickety parent-age and bad environment is doomed. Now and then there are rare exceptions. Sometimes the most beautiful and fragrant lily grows up in the most murky place.

There are two ways by which society blasts many human lives. One is neglect and the other by causing him to stumble. The most fatal blow a grown up can make is to wrong a boy, that means a girl also of course. You mistreat a boy and you do him an eternal injury.

When quite a boy a sheep buyer came by my father's with a drove of sheep and needed help to drive the flock and he gained my father's permission to go help him. It was about sunset. I went and did all I could to assist. Darkness came on and I told the man I could go no farther. The man offered me one dime if I would go five miles farther but I went back home disappointed.
My father asked me how much he paid me and when I replied that he had paid me nothing it was the only time in my life I ever saw my father overcome with indignation. I never had any more respect for that sheep buyer and never will.

Men you ought to have more respect for childhood even if you do not for yourself as to ever use profanity and blackguard in the hearing of a boy.

The Man of Galilee, the greatest of all teachers and the dearest lover of boys says that you better have a mill stone tied around your neck and be cast into the depths of the sea as to cause one of little ones to stumble.

REPORT OF STATE COMMISSION

Governor Heartily Commends Recommendations Made After Months of Study

State Educational Commission sitting in the office of Mr. Alexander G. Barret, its Secretary.

The Preliminary Report of the Commission With Gov- ernor's Approval Across the Bottom Is Given Below

Gov. State P. Morrow,
Governor of Kentucky, Frankfort, Kentucky.

Sir:-

The Commission appointed pursuant to the act approved March 22, 1920 to make a survey of the public educational system of the State and to "report its findings with recommendations for improvement", to the Governor, has completed its field work and is now engaged in preparing the report which will be in your hands prior to the meeting of the next Legislature. We have already presented for enough timely your attention to one feature of our system, the improvement of which is fundamental to the future development of our schools.

The upbuilding of a sound system of public schools which will give our children educational opportunities worthy of the state and which will give country boys and girls as good educational opportunities as are enjoyed by city boys and girls depends at bottom on efficiency and competency of administration. The office is more or less independent. They choose their superintendents on the basis of competence. The care and direction of the country schools is in the hands of the County Superintendents and the State Superintendent of Public Instruction. The County Superintendents are now for the first time chosen by the County Boards of Education, — a great step in advance. The State Superintendent alone remains a political officer. The interest of our schools demands that the office of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction shall cease to be a political office and that our schools cease to be administered on political lines. The State Superintendent should be an educator whose qualifications and term should be fixed by the Legislature or by a Board of Education created by the Legislature.

At the general election, next November, there will be submitted to the voters of the State two constitutional amendments, one taking the office of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction out of the list of elected state officers, the other freeing a part of the public school funds to equalize educational opportunities and to encourage needed improvements. Unless these two amendments are adopted our hands are tied and educational progress in Kentucky is doomed to be exceedingly slow.

We recommend through you to the people of the State that the active help of every person and every organization, educational, agricultural, commercial and industrial, be given to the passing of these two constitutional amendments so decisively that the whole state will realize that we have started upon a program that will give both city and country boys and girls educational opportunities as good as those provided by any State in the Union.

Very respectfully,

KENTUCKY EDUCATIONAL COMMISSION

KENTUCKY FARMERS REAP RICH HARVEST.

Revenue from Breeding Thoroughbred Horses Only Profit to Be Depended Upon.

Sale of Blooded Cuts Produces Money When Other Products Bring Loss.

The Kentucky farmer has lost money on his wheat and corn; he is forced to ship his cattle and hogs to a losing and constantly falling market; and his losses on his tobacco have nearly driven him into bankruptcy. The calamities of a troubled world are placed upon his back, already bent double by its burdens.

Under these untoward conditions, the one fortunate exception among farmers is the stock raiser who owns one or more thoroughbred mares. He always finds a nation-wide demand for his thoroughbred foals. The weanling at its mother's side frequently brings him $500 to $1,000, while the yearling will sell for from $1,500 to $10,000, a colt from a Jefferson county farm having brought, at one of the recent Saratoga sales $25,000.

Year in and year out, the Kentucky thoroughbred finds a ready market; buyers from all over the world coming to this State to secure material to improve the horses of their respective countries or localities. Owner Riddle refused $500,000 for Man-O-War, a horse bred by Mr. August Belmont in Old Kentucky. A wonder horse is Man-O-War. A smasher of all records and victor over all opponents that made some of the most brilliant of turf history, he has been returned to his native hearth, there to perpetuate his great qualities. Last month, Man-O-War's full brother, Playfellow, by name, was sold for $115,000; and not long ago, John E. Madden refused $125,000 for a half interest in the Kentucky-bred stallion, Friar Rock, now in the stud at Hamburg Place, near Lexington.

Numerous other thoroughbred stallions and mares of nearly, if not quite, priceless value are owned in the State. Wheat, corn and tobacco are often crop failures, and cattle and hogs are frequently raised at a loss. But the thoroughbred has a great permanent value, for nowhere else in this country is he brought to such perfection as in Kentucky, and his fame and the demand for him are world-wide.

Illinois Central System Betters Service by Co-operating With Public

This is the twelfth in a series of monthly public statements which the Illinois Central System is making through the newspapers on its lines. Each preceding statement has treated of some railway problem of current importance, setting forth information which we believe the public should have and inviting constructive criticism and suggestions. Our aim has been to bring about closer co-operation with the public in such a way as to be reflected in the constant betterment of the service rendered by the Illinois Central System.

Our program was begun September 1, 1921—the day the railroads resumed operations under their own financial responsibilities. The results we have obtained convince us that the plan we have followed has been worth while. We believe that we and our patrons have received through the better understanding which has been brought about between us, full value for our efforts in newspaper advertising. Consequently we hold it our duty to continue to play our part in disseminating information that will give the public a more adequate idea of the problems which railway management face—which also are the public's problems. We have decided therefore to continue our program another twelve months.

Railway management is the trustee of a vast investment in the railroads, an investment fixed by the Interstate Commerce Commission for rate-making purposes at $18,900,000,000, but in reality greater than that, for upon the satisfactory administration of railways properties depends the future welfare not only of the railway properties themselves but also of all the manifold activities of our entire national business life.

We believe the railway problems of the United States requires the best and most constructive thought of all the people—farmers, business men, professional men and railway men working in harmony. The railroads are ruled by public opinion. If public thought on railway questions is unprogressive, the railroads cannot make progress which means that they will not be enabled to meet the constantly increasing demands of public service.

The public is not entirely to blame for such unsatisfactory railway conditions as have obtained in the past. We believe the reticence of railway men themselves, in failing to keep the public well informed, has been one of the causes of the growth of restrictive legislation, of unprogressive regulation and anti-railway spirit, which have worked a hardship upon railway development, and consequently upon the public itself.

That our discussions have contributed to a better understanding of railway problems on the part of the public served by the Illinois Central System is evidenced to us in many ways. Not only have our patrons helped us in the solution of many problems which we have presented to them, giving us their hearty support and co-operation in carrying out our programs for better service, but the better mutual understanding which has been awakened—a better understanding on our part of our patrons' problems, and a better understanding on their part of ours—has been reflected in generally improved service. Our discussions have also been a means of perfecting within our organization that spirit of loyalty and service which always has characterized the Illinois Central System.

Railway rates are standardized under governmental authority. Service is the basis of competition among the railroads. Service is the measure which determines the worth of a railway system. Service must be unselfish. It must find expression in safety, efficiency and economy. We pledge our best efforts toward serving the patrons of the Illinois Central System. Constructive criticism and suggestions are invited.

C. H. MARKHAM,
President, Illinois Central System.

OBITUARY

James G. Highfill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Laff Highfill of Tolu was born February 4, 1896 and joined the M. E. Church at Tolu in 1914. He was a great church worker and made very many friends. Everybody who knew him loved him. In May 1918 he went to Camp Taylor and in September he left the United States for France. He had been there only a short time when he was killed in action on the battlefield, October 21, 1918. Just before he was killed he wrote the following home:

"I will this beautiful sunny evening write you. I am still having good health and hope all at home are well.

"We have a doctor and a chaplain in our Battalion. I am still reading my Bible each day and I pray each night, and Mama it makes me feel good to read and pray. I intend to remain a Christian as long as I live and when I come home I will still be a lover of God.

"Well I am close to the firing line now, can hear and see the big guns. The Allies are sure driving the Hun's back. I have some of the Hun's guns we have captured.

"Tell the home folks and neighbors I will see them some happy day if it is the Lord's Will. Tell papa to take care of himself; tell all the kids hello; tell Allie and Jessie to write to me."

On July 30 his body was laid to rest in the White Chapel Grave Yard. Many friends attended the services.

Services were conducted by Ensign O. M. Capshaw, U. S. N. Pastor of Tolu Methodist Church.

88 YEARS OLD— STILL GARDENING

We clip the following from the county paper published at Barstow Texas. Many of our readers will read with pleasure of Dr. T. L. Dean formerly of this county.

The News family is again under lasting obligations to Dr. Dean for a splendid supply of vegetables on Tuesday of this week and the fact that it was all grown by himself makes it the more appreciated.

Dr. Dean has truly been a remarkable man and his life has certainly been one of usefulness. Even before retiring from the practice of his profession Dr. Dean was always on the alert for a chance to perform a kindly act to those who were less fortunate than himself and in his declining years he reaps pleasures from continuing the practices formed in his younger days.

Dr. Dean will have soon reached his eighty-eighth milestone but despite these advanced years he is yet hale and hearty and easily maintains the championship as Ward county's most successful gardener and to those with an incentive for diversified farming and for raising more of the necessities of life we would point to Dr. Dean as an example, the Doctor having long since become independent of the grocer and a tin can diet. Others who have visited Dr. Dean lately state that it is astonishing to learn what can be done by a man possessed with determination at the age of 88 years and with only the help of a long-handled shovel and a hoe.

Not only is Dr. Dean a successful farmer-gardener but he finds time to read extensively and is an interesting conversationalist. He's our friend and we're proud of him. A visit from him always inspires us to strive for the things higher and greater in life. May he live to enjoy growing many more gardens.

Here's why CAMELS are the quality cigarette

BECAUSE we put the utmost quality into this one brand. Camels are as good as it's possible for skill, money and lifelong knowledge of fine tobaccos to make a cigarette.

Nothing is too good for Camels. And bear this in mind! Everything is done to make Camels the best cigarette it's possible to buy. Nothing is done simply for show.

Take the Camel package for instance. It's the most perfect packing science can devise to protect cigarettes and keep them fresh. Heavy paper—secure foil wrapping—revenue stamp to seal the fold and make the package air-tight. But there's nothing flashy about it. You'll find no extra wrappers. No frills or furbelows.

Such things do not improve the smoke any more than premiums or coupons. And remember—you must pay their extra cost or get lowered quality.

If you want the smoothest, mellowest, mildest cigarette you can imagine—and one entirely free from cigarette aftertaste, It's Camels for you.

If elected as your sheriff, I will enter upon the discharge of my duties without being allied with any individual or individuals by pre-election promises, for if elected, I intend to enter upon my duties with my hands untied, so that I may not have to pay any pre-election promise by the failure to perform ANY duty of said office.

To the Voters and Friends of Crittenden County:

In making my last appeal to you I wish to say in conclusion, let us all laboring people stand together hand in hand of every profession. I have not been able to canvass the county; being a working man and had to work for a living. I believe in the county books being open at all times for inspection by the taxpayers. I earnestly appeal to you to remember and support me as a Republican candidate for County Judge. I thank you.
