OBSTACLES IN FEDERAL HIGHWAY RIGHT-OF-WAY

The committee appointed for the purpose has not yet succeeded in getting the right of way for the Federal highway from Morganfield by way of Waverly to the Henderson county line. It now seems if this right of way is obtained at all it will have to be through the courts. This will take time and may delay the building of the road another year. Citizens from Sturgis, we understand, have told Judge Tucker they are ready to turn the right-of-way from Morganfield to the Crittenden county line over at once and ask that that part of the federal highway be constructed right away. The tax payers of the county have already paid in two thirds of the county's part of the cost of this highway and will pay in the other third this year. What's the use of keeping this money in the banks? they are asking. Why not go ahead with the road with the road from here to Crittenden this fall and follow with the part from here to the Henderson county line next year.

Is it right to keep $200,000 or more of the people's money lying idle in the banks when they have paid it into the treasury for the purpose of building the federal highway?

This highway should have been started two years ago.

What the people want is the road. If one end of it can not be built right away because of legal obstacles lay the other end. It isn't a question of any material importance which end is laid first anyway.—Morganfield Sun.

CIRCUS DAY—A REAL HOLIDAY

The coming of the great Rhoda Royal Shows to Marion on Thursday September 22 will no doubt be a treat to the citizens of Crittenden county. Manager Royal, while being among the younger school of show owners is reported to be one of the wealthiest and that he has spared no money to secure the best for every department. A glance at the list of celebrities under his control will convince the most skeptical that he has been amply rewarded for his lavish outlay. His horses are models of horse flesh and his trained horses do everything but talk.

FARM HOUSE NEAR BLACKFORD STRUCK TWICE

During the heavy storm of Thursday the lightning struck the home of James R. Crider about four miles from Blackford, badly shocking the family and others who were visiting the family and damaging the house considerably.

The house was struck by lightning two different times. The first bolt struck the roof and a second column of the front porch. The roof was torn off the house.

The inmates were badly shocked and for a time all were unconscious. Much trouble was had by the others in reviving Mrs. Crider, who it was thought for a time was dead. However it proved that she was only shocked and no one suffered real injury.—Providence Enterprise.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Cruce are spending the week at the Watterson Hotel and attending the State Fair at Louisville.

FOOT-BALL SEASON OPENS FRIDAY

The local football season will open here Friday afternoon with a game with the Frances High School team. Frances has a good team and as they have been practicing longer than the Marion boys and their coach will play with them, a strong opposition is promised our team.

Coach John Young Brown announced the probable lineup for the game Friday. The back field, Wilson Conner, Brown, Dillard and Allen; Hicklin and Small, ends; S. Belt and King, tackles; Hughes and Hina, guards, and Oliver, center will start the game.

Coach Brown announced that every candidate would get a chance to play in the game but that the above named men would start the game. He reports a very successful week of practice and says that the team is rounding into a well organized fighting machine. From 26 to 27 men have reported for practice during the last few days and more coming out every afternoon.

The team is heavier this year than for the past several years and the backfield is the fastest that Marion has ever possessed. Coach Brown is a product of Centre College and has been under Moran, one of the country's brainiest foot-ball men, and Marion High School is lucky indeed to have the services of such an able coach. Mr. Brown is ably assisted by Mr. O. M. Shelby, the Smith-Hughes man, who is a graduate of Tennessee State and played three years on that team.

The Frances game begins the strongest schedule that Marion has ever gone against. A game has been scheduled with Henderson here on October 8, other games are arranged with Princeton and the regular C. I. A. teams.

On October 1, at Cooks Park in this city there will be held an agricultural fair. The Junior Club pigs at Forest Grove will be shown and prizes awarded for the club member making the best showing on his project work. There will be classes in dairy stock, hogs, beef cattle, sheep, poultry, and a seed corn show. Complete premium list in next weeks paper. Decide now if you will enter, we want to make this a good big fair, the premiums will be worth while. Don't forget the date October 1st. Short Course in Agriculture

The College of Agriculture, University of Kentucky offers a short course in practical agriculture that farmers may take during the least busy season of the year. Courses are offered in soil fertility, crop production, plant diseases, live stock feeding, dairy products, poultry, diseases of live stock, bee keeping, fruit and vegetable growing and marketing. No entrance examinations, two terms one before Christmas and one following, go for one or both terms. The first term comes October 31 to December 16, the second, January 3, to February 25.

To one who wishes a course in agriculture but does not feel he can afford the regular university course this short course is unexcelled. There are a number of pamphlets giving further details at the County Agent's office. Further information can be obtained by writing Thomas Cooper, Dean, College of Agriculture, Lexington, Kentucky.

Tuberculin Testing

Dr. F. G. Riedel of the Bureau of Animal Industry, U. S. Department of Agriculture, stationed at Paducah, spent part of Tuesday and Wednesday in Crittenden county in tuberculosis eradication work. He is using the three day test injecting the tuberculin this trip and is coming back and making an examination at the end of the third day. Several herds were put on test Tuesday and Wednesday and the results will be known Friday and Saturday. A number of dairymen were unable to have the test at this time and so Dr. Riedel promises to come back the first week in October.

The Crittenden County Farm Bureau directors at their regular monthly meeting voted to make a drive for members in the near future. There has been a slow gradual growth in the organization during the summer months and it is believed that many more Crittenden farmers realize the benefits of organization and will join. Find out about the Farm Bureau and you will learn it is one of the greatest farmers' organizations in existence today.

Have you culled your hens and gotten rid of the loafers? No use to feed a loafing hen all winter.

The County Agent's office is in the concrete building in Marion. Mr. Spencer makes it a point to stay in his office on Saturdays and County court days. If you are a farmer and don't know the County Agent don't wait until he comes to see you but go and see him.

After an adjournment of two months the Womens Club met with Mrs. C. W. Haynes on Wednesday afternoon. The subject under discussion was the Civic and Political question. H. Cannan Company. The two men operated a large men's furnishing store in this city. The firm had one of the most modern stores in Marion.

The unsecured claims total $7,782.76, while the amount of the secured indebtedness is $9,106.45. Most of the unsecured claims are with manufacturers and jobbers of men's clothing and furnishings. Of the assets the real estate is listed at $12,000, while the stock on hand now is estimated to be worth $1,477.

RETURNS TO MARION

Mr. W. M. Kemp, formerly of this place who recently moved to Providence, has returned to Marion and is now located at M. O. Eskew Repair Shop. Mr. Kemp will have charge of the repair shop and as he has had considerable experience in his line he is prepared to do all kinds of repair work.

PASSES AWAY

Miss Alice Jane Hill, daughter of James W. Hill, was born February 21, 1847. She departed this life on September 10, 1921, aged 74 years six months and 19 days.

She was united in marriage to Benjamin Isam Allen November 22, 1886. He preceded her to the grave fifteen months.

She is survived by one child, Alvin, three step-children, Robert, Hattie and Rosa; and three brothers, T. M. H. O. and H. S. Hill; and six grandchildren.

She professed religion in early life and united with the Presbyterian church at Marion, Ky. When Chapel Hill church was organized her membership was transferred there. She lived a true and devout Christian life. She always rejoiced in doing her blessed Master's will.

All that loving hands could do was done for her during her illness. Her daughter, Mrs. Franks, and grandson, Lawrence, who made their home with Mrs. Allen were very attentive to her in her last days.

She is gone, but she leaves behind her the hallowed influence of a consecrated life. We mourn her loss but we know she is with loved ones and basking in the loving smiles of her blessed Redeemer.

BUTTERFIELD-BELT

Mr. Wm. Butterfield and Miss Dorothy Belt were married at the home of the bride Thursday evening, Rev. E. M. Eaton, officiating.

Mr. Butterfield was in the Canadian Army during the war. The happy couple will make their home in Marion.

Mrs. H. V. Stone visited Miss Alice Browning at Evansville last week.

DAIRY PRODUCTS IN GREATER DEMAND

The United States may be "dry" but it isn't so with the cows in this part of the country. Officials of the Evansville Exposition, Evansville, September 20 to October 1, expect a record breaking exhibit of cattle.

Prohibition has created a greater demand for dairy products, more milk and cream being needed everywhere to supply the trade. Seeking to co-operate with the dairy interests, and raise the standard of dairying so the output of milk and cream can be increased locally, the Evansville Exposition is offering generous premiums for dairy cattle and dairy products.

Director of Publicity, Mose Strouse of the fair, says he has just received statistics from Washington which indicate that nearly 500,000,000 gallons of ice cream alone will be consumed in the country this year. If dished out in the form of cones, there would be 200 cones for each man, woman and child.

There will be a big entertainment program at the fair this year. It will be a gala time for everyone for many miles in all directions.

DEATH OF MRS. SARAH FORD

On September 6, Mrs. Sarah Ford, wife of Martin Ford, died at her home near Crooked Creek Church.

She was in her seventy-second year and the mother of six children, Josie, Connie, Lee, Russell and Duggie. One son, Royal, had died.

She was a good and devoted mother and had been a member of the Crooked Creek church since she was 16 years old.

Her remains were laid away in the cemetery at Crooked Creek on the 7th, funeral services conducted by Rev. W. P. Meroney and Rev. T. C. Carter.

OBITUARY

Morris Edward Simpson, the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Simpson was born February 6, 1921, died on August 25, 1921. He had been sick only a few days and his death was a shock to the family and their many friends.

He had come into the home as a glorious gift from God, the only child idolized by his parents. Though his life was short, only six months and nineteen days, he has not lived in vain for the home was made brighter and hearts more tender by his winning baby ways, and heaven seems nearer by knowing he is there.

The funeral services were at Dunn Springs church and the little body was laid to rest in the Dunn Spring cemetery. There were many beautiful floral offerings for the little one, who though so young was loved by everyone. EMMA TERRY

R. E. Jagers and John Young Brown went to Providence Saturday to meet with the principals and coaches of the schools in the C. I. A. to make up the schedule for foot ball and basket ball games for this season.

KEEP UP THE SURVEY

People in many sections of Kentucky have been using rather expensive material in the construction of mediocre roads, according to the report of an eminent geologist who has just completed a survey of the State at the instance of the State Geologist. He found that valuable and paying strata have been encroached upon to provide metal for the roads and that travelers on these thoroughfares have been inhaling the dust of the rarest varieties of marble.

Ignorance of what Kentucky really possesses in the way of natural resources largely has been instrumental in retarding the development and progress of the State. Now that marble of varying types has been found to exist in paying quantities, speedy development may be looked for. This may lead to other valuable discoveries that may add to the commercial importance of the State's stone industry.

Only recently was it discovered that the Kentucky River cliffs produced the finest quality of calcite, a mineral used as the base of talcum and other delicate powders. As a result, this industry has been developed and made to pay. The same is true of barytes, fluor spar, rock asphalt and other minerals that add their part to Kentucky's commercial sum total. These discoveries and their development date back only a few years but indicate the limitless resources of Kentucky in mineralogy.

What has been accomplished would suggest that the survey and investigations be continued as practical and paying efforts. If funds are not available for this purpose the next Legislature should provide them.

Versatile Fall Fashions Take Their Cue From Costumes of All Races

SMALL wonder that we feel like veritable globe-trotters in these days of world-inspired Fashion developments. It is both exhilarating and enlightening to find ourselves on intimate terms with such foreign topics as the mandarin flare; the Russian blouse; the Egyptian motif; the Spanish note—even the bloused back and picturesque cowl of the anstete monk's robe in our very own coats.

Formal and Informal Wraps

The woman who cherishes the thought of being a bit "dressed-up" is coming into her own this season. Even the big Coats for utility purposes carry the dressy note in touches of self-embroidery, novelty girdles, unusual convertible collars and elaborate sleeves. And the new Capes and Wraps, particularly for formal wear, are luxurious velvet, brocade and fur conceptions to dream about. Especially attractive are those shown at popular prices

$29.75 TO $49.50

Suits Follow New Fashion Trends

The court-page cape attached to the shoulders of some of these new suits is a jaunty innovation in the extreme mode. Dressy notes in one form or another, characterize many of the most favored models. Even the classic Tailleur has submitted to the mode and taken on a more gracious aspect. The new Costume Suits of three pieces, or the costumes comprising Frocks with matching Cape are certain to meet your genuine approval. at

$39.75 TO $69.50

Fall Street Frocks

Smartly Tailored From Silk or Wool

It seems quite incredible that the simplicity of the straight-line mode could develop so many and such wholly irresistible variations as are shown in these new Tailored Frocks. Often of crepe—kitten's ear, Canton or moleskin—their appealing softness is indescribable. Again they are of Poiret twill or pluchette, unassuming as a nun's habit yet smart beyond words. Shown now in a complete range of prices from

$14.75 to $89.50

FOR AFFAIRS THAT ARE FESTIVE

Among the Gowns for formal occasions there is much inclination toward the combining of lace, of the all-over sort, with Georgette, satin or crepe. Other models illustrate to a delightful degree the fondness for the pouched bodice, developed in velvet or crepe. The snug basque and distended hips are in evidence for formal and informal wear, and slashed sleeves of every diaphanous fabric are a graceful adjunct to informal Frocks of all types. at

$24.75 to $250.00

SMALL FURS

ARE QUITE SMART FOR FALL WEAR

Small neck pieces in Squirrel, black and brown Fox. Throws, Scarfs and Coats, in full Fox Skins, in brown and natural. at

Camels are made for Men who Think for Themselves

Such folks know real quality—and DEMAND it.

They prefer Camels because Camels give them the smoothest, mellowest smoke they can buy—because they love the mild, rich flavor of choicest tobaccos, perfectly blended—and because Camels leave NO CIGARETTE AFTERTASTE.

Like every man who does his own thinking, you want fine tobacco in your cigarettes. You'll find it in Camels.

And, mind you, no flashy package just for show. No extra wrappers! No costly frills! These things don't improve the smoke any more than premiums or coupons.

But QUALITY! Listen! That's CAMELS!

The following case is but one of many occurring daily in Marion. It is an easy matter to verify it. You cannot ask for better proof.

G. M. L. Nesbitt, Cherry St., Marion, says: "I can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to anyone having any trouble with their kidneys. On different occasions, during the past ten years I have taken Doan's Kidney Pills to regulate my kidneys when they have been out of order and they have always given good results. A few years ago after an attack of the 'flu' my kidneys bothered me a great deal. I had severe pains in my back and the action of my kidneys was very irregular causing me a great deal of annoyance especially at night. I got Doan's Kidney Pills at Orme's Drug Store and they strengthened my kidneys in good shape just as they had always done before."
