

gave a surprise birthday party for accomplishments of the institution is of the Marion High School were the in the state according to E. S. Good, guests of honor as Mr. Belt is a member of this class. After an ev. partment. ening of entertaining games, refresh-

Bernice Thompson; Mesars. Ernest tion animal hasbandry men-Threlkeld, Paul Travis, Sylvan Moore Calvert Small, Robert Frazer and rows which were awarded the blue Ereda Belt.

MARRIED IN PRINCETON

Dr. O. T. Lowery, of Tolu and Miss Miss Jennie Houston, of Carrsville, feated those from some of the most went to Princeton Wednesday of last week, and were married. Dr. Low- the United States. ery is a gifted young physician and winzome qualities. gratulates them.

BAZAR PLANS COMPLETED

The plans for the Bazaar to be being made ready for an evening of for almost anything one might de- ers, 4th and 8th on Hampshire lambs there as I do, I have been skeptical baby rattlers. Kissed 126 babies, kin-noon at 4 o'clock and remain open until 11 o'clock. The play to be staged in the school auditorium with

There will be candy booths, hamfor Christmas presents. In fact there will be so many attractions and markets that they are too numerous to lets that they are too numerous to conducting corn variety tests have

DECLAMATORY CONTEST

The Crittenden County Declamatory contest was held Friday evening at the Marion High School Auditorium. Educational Divisions One and Two were represented.

Miss Ruby Holloman, representing Brown School won the first prize, a bn per acre $10 gold piece. Miss Gladys Clark, reprensenting Forest Grove school, bushels per acre won the second prize, a five dollar gold piece.

Mexico achool was represented by Miss Velda Champion. Each speaker proved herself a worthy contest-

The High School Orchestra furnished music which added much to the program and was enjoyed by all

CAMPBELL-CASSIDY

A marriage of much interest to a large circle of friends was that of Mrs. Jessie Cassidy, of Salem, to Mr.

WOODALL-BELT

success and happiness.

Farm Bureau Notes

Experiment Station Winnings Winnings of the Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station at the recent International Live Stock Ex-On Monday evening Mrs. John Belt Position represent one of the major its program for improved live stock head of the animal husbandry de biscuits, pickles, salad, hot chocolate, of three junior yearling Berkshire wether and the first prize on a per Those present were: Misses Vida barrows, all of which were won it Higham, Edith Crider, Irene Daugh- the most prominent professional trey, Marie Lowry, Evelyne Mcore, breeders and exhibitors from all parts Martha Reed, Virginia Doss, Leota of te United States, are regarded as Sullenger, Cora Smith Marie Taylor, a distinct accomplishment by sta-

> The pen of three Berkshire barribbon is a product of the Station work in breeding and feeding swine, all of them having been bred and raised on the station farm. In winsuccessful exhibitors and breeders in

The Hampshire wether, which was has a large practice. Miss Houston awarded the championship for wethis the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. ers of his breed was declared to be The following is a letter from Mr. L. Houston, of Carrsville. She is a one of the most evenly covered and M. A. Wilson, of Colorado, to W. R. a defeated candidate of his campaign at the meeting of the City Council versity of Kentucky, has been choscultured young lady and has many best fitted Hampshire at the Exhi- Cruce, which will be of interest to losses and he wants the readers of Monday night. Judge is now in his en as the 1922 Rhodes scholar from The Press con-bition by the live stock authorities our readers. who viewed him.

Among the prizes captured by Mr. W. R. Cruce, Crayne, Ky. live stock from the station farm were My Dear Friend: ton improvement class.

year and promises to be the best report of the crop extention spec- as Crittenden, still there is a wide in an effort to determine definitely amount.

farmers conducted this year

HENRY-GASS

minister, the Bev. J. W. Woodson, paster of the Baptist church.

The only attendants were the brides sister. Miss Emma Padon of Nash-

WEDDING

Paris officiating. This popular young of the bride's father, Mr. Alvin snow on the mountains is very beau-door, couple reside in the Piney Creek sec- Walker. Rev. O. M. Capshaw per- tiful. We see it every day of the With hopes and good wishes for ney Fork church conducted by her The new City Council was installtion. The groom, a son of Mr. Will formed the rites that made them one, year from our door. Come out and good roads and the welfare of your- pastor, Rev. J. B. Skinner. The ed Monday night. The officers el-Woodall, is a hustling farmer and Quite a number of friends of the pay us a visit. I will take you to self and estimable wife, and wishing floral offerings were beautiful. Her ected are: Judge Jas. A. Moore, the bride is the accomplished daugh- contracting parties were present. the hills and show you most mag- you lots of turkey, cranberry sauce, body was laid to rest in the Piney City Attorney; Miss Katie Yandell, industrious young farmer.

Notice to Our Advertisers

We are planning to issue on Thursday before Christmas a big extra page issue of The Crittenden Press with beautiful colored cover. This will be the last issue of the paper for the year 1921 and at the same time it will be the best and most expensive number we have issued.

To our advertisers the rate in this special issue will be the same as for all other issues. No extra charge, but let us urge that you reserve your space and get your copy in early. Watch for the big issue.

The Crittenden Bress

LETTER FROM COLORADO

Nunn, Colo., Nov. 24, 1921

the following: Eighth on Shorthork I have just read in the "Crittenden tion: lost forty-three acres of corn are practicing attorneys. the auspices of the School Improve- shire barrows, 2nd and 6th on se- on the job in the matter of boostnior Berkshire pigs, 2nd on a pen ing good roads. I have watched with nent. Donated one beef, four shoats is a Methodist. neen completed and everything in of senior Berkshire pigs, 2nd on a pen ing good roads. I have watered and five sheep to a country barbecue. on the offspring of one sire, 1st, 5th ects on foot in Crittenden county Gave away two pair of suspenders, wholesome fun as well as a market 8th 9th on yearling Hampshire weth- Knowing the people and conditions five calico dresses, five dolls and 13 be with you to help. I am with miles, shook hands, 9,086 times, told an all star cast will be can't be the beat and McCracken counties who ble efforts in the past sowed some make in print one thousand volumes which usually accompanies the se. annually on roads and bridges alone got defeated." - Smithland Enterprise, This is the first attraction of the lection of the best variety of corn approximately $262,000.00. Of course

School Improvement Club for this for a given section, according to a this county is three times at large MAIN STREET ialist from the College. The tests margin between what Crittenden will be continued for several years spends and one third of the above

In the 21 variety tests which the has electric light and motive power, fine big grain elevators, two machine Pride of Saline, av 40.8 bu per A shops, etc. Compare this with Ma-Boone Co. White av. 37.8 bu to A rice, Ky. God bless her I love her. Reids yellow Dent averaged 34.9 She is my God-mother and old Crittenden my native heath, but I relowa Silven Mine averaged 32.3 gret that the people don't go in stronger for Civic improvements and Hickory King averaged 29 bushels can't understand the more they put into it, the more profits they would These yields constitute the ones derive. This country has abundance Judge' Carl Henderson's dairy this important meeting. given in the first report received from of public spirit. This county has barn caught fire and was burned. The meeting will be held-in the to return a registered package con-> ing wheat. Last year we had good and dollars. wheat but labor expense alone was $4200.00. We finished fifty steers and lost $1500.00 flat on those. This

The bride is a popular young lady, it touched a very tender spot in my

out today on a big coyote drive in-Route 1 Sullivan, Ky. cluding my boy with his pack of stags. This is an elegant Thanks-The bride is a favorite among her nifecent mountain scenery, show you and good cheer on this Thanksgiving Fork Cemetery to wait the Resur- Treasurer; H. C. Franklin, Clerk; Their many friends wish for them many friends and the groom is an the wild life of the plains and the day, I beg to remain, most modern and scientific farming Your friend, M. A. WILSON | dead but sleepeth. A FRIEND T. J. Wring, Assessor.

A DEFEATED CANDIDATE

this paper to help him enjoy it:

hours sleep thinking about the elec-

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH a special number.

The Rev. E. N. Hart, Pastor of hand at our church. Are you a man? which varieties are best suited to the different sections of Kentucky.

Our little town of Nunn has less than itwo hundred inhabitants, but the different sections of Kentucky.

ct-"A Strong Church."

BARN BURNED

"A Strong Refuge."

All are invited.

Sixty-five tons of alfalfa other hay occupied by T. C. Bennett. varities were included in the work I am farming, but owing to con- and feed were destroyed. The origin and in several cases gave higher ditions, bad management or other of the fire is anknown. Only a small yields than any of the five varieties causes, I am not getting very far. amount of insurance was carried and I have been feeding cattle and rais- the loss will amount to several thous-

NEW OIL STATION

COCKERELS FOR SALE

ALMOST COMPLETE RIGHT OF WAY NORTH OF CUMBERLAND

J. E. Massey and Willis Champion fine for the Federal Highway which been dismissed. The date for rereport good success, most every land owner being willing to give the sons and it is thought most of them will later on. Some few refused ab- an increase in employment. solutely to give up any ground but The average price paid for tobacco of course the court in cases of this at the warehouses in Owensboro this kind will condemn the land and as- year is $16.75 per hundred, against the road. It should be remembered at the corresponding date last year. that the court in deciding on such cases figure the amount the road enthe logical way as well as the quick- order in case of emergency. est is to make it unanimous so that W. E. Lewis, 30, Pnieville mer-Livingston county will have a mod-chant, was arrested Sunday night,

ELECTED CITY ATTORNEY

year.-Livingston Enterprise.

Somebody sent this inventory of ed City Attorney for the next term of LaCenter, a student in the Uni-86th year and has held this office Kentucky. "Lost four months and twenty. for fourteen years, and is a promithree days canvassing; lost 1,340 nent attorney at the Marion bar. the record of a Taylor county, Texas,

The plans for the Bazaar to be given at the school building, under rows, 1st on a pen of yearling Berk. est to me, viz, that you are still two front teeth and a lot of hair in the Republican party; religiously he the Republican party; religiously he

METHODIST CHURCH

sire. The proceeds will go for imor and on a pen of three Hampshire until I knew the contract was let and died fourteen kitchen fires, put up lin next Sunday by filling any summent for provement and to buy equipment for Jambs, championship wether, 7th on dirt broken. Now I am hopeful. I eight stoves, cut 14 cords of wood, the school buildings."

Straight on a pen of three Hampshire until I knew the contract was let and Jambs, championship wether, 7th on dirt broken. Now I am hopeful. I eight stoves, cut 14 cords of wood, in the church. Then we shall all be in one precinct, including three el-

Farmers in Fulton, Carlisle, Graves you in spirit and hope that my fee- 10,000 lies and talked enough to Great Possession."

burger stands, fish pools, fancy work extension division of the College of fruit. Keep up the good work. I tended twenty-six revival meetings, league a life saving station in the is engaged in "gainful occupation", kets that they are too numerous to conducting corn variety tests have nativity bloom as a rose with good dog bit thirty-nine times and then level of the guess work roads. This county (Weld) spends dog bit thirty-nine times and then level. "Hiding God's High Values in the Dirt."

Every man gives and gets the glad bolt.

SPECIAL MEETING

Morning service, 11 o'clock sub- of the American Legion will hold a State Secretary of the Kentucky special meeting on next Monday ev. Farm Bureau Federation. Mr. Mor-Evening service, 7 o'clock, subject ening December 12, at 7:00 P. M. gan made this statement after hearto elect officers for the year 1922, ing reports of other State Secreta-All members of the Post and all ries at the National Farm Bnrean Crittenden County men who served meeting held at Atlanta. in the Army, Navy, or Marine Corps The District Court at London, Kybetween April 6. 1917 and November sentenced Rice Singleton, Harlan 11, 1918, are urged to be present at county, to three years in Federal 27 counties in which variety tests twenty High Schools, twenty-three about two o'clock Wednesday after- Legion's headquarters in the Carna- taining $5,300 that was handed him were conducted luring the past sum- local, State and National banks, and coort. The barn was 74x44 feet han Building in the rooms formerly by mistake.

OBITUARY

ter of Jacob and Nancy Crayne, was born March 15, 1844. She was mar- Proceedings were begun in Daviees. ried to James Bradley, Mar. 3, 1863. County Court by the County Attor-On Wednesday, Nov. 16, at the year we had 6000 bushels of wheat The Hawkeye Oil Co., is to put only three living, B. J. Bradley, have Sheriff George W. Bifles refund Thomas E. Campbell, of Dycusburg, home of Rev. Rudolph Lane in this but the price was so low we could in a new oil station in this city. Mrs. J. A. Wilson, Mrs. J. M. to the County Treasury $22,500 alwhich was quietly solemnized Saturcity Miss Nina Henry and the Rev. hardly beat expenses. So you see The new station will be located on Conger. Besides her children and leged to have been paid to him in exday evening November 5, at Kutta-George Gass, of Dycusburg, were hap-the "White mans burden" is to spend the "White mans burden" is to spend grandchildren she leaves one brother cess of the constitutional compensawa, in the parsonage of the officiating pily united in marriage, the cere his life working for the financial management and Mr. Bart Summerville will have to mourn her death. After her first tion allowed to his office. husband's death she was married to J. H. Thomason who preceded her ville, Tenn., and brother, Mr. William Padon of Paducah.

After a short stay in Paducah, they College at Russellville. —Princeton

Twenty-five men and twice the egg strain.

The bride is a popular young and the groom is a well known minimagination and memory. How I would loved to have been present. Twenty-five men and twice the egg strain.

The bride is a popular young and the groom is a well known minimagination and memory. How I would loved to have been present. The general rouse was transacted and the groom is a well known minimagination and memory. How I would loved to have been present. The general rouse was transacted and the groom is a well known minimagination and memory. How I would loved to have been present. The general rouse was transacted and the groom is a well known minimagination and memory. How I would loved to have been present. The general rouse was transacted and the groom is a well known minimagination and memory. How I would loved to have been present. The general rouse was transacted and the groom is a well known minimagination and memory. How I would loved to have been present. The general rouse was transacted and the groom is a well known minimagination and memory. How I would loved to have been present. The general rouse was transacted and the groom is a well known minimagination and memory. How I would loved to have been present. The general rouse was transacted and the groom is a well known minimagination and memory. How I would loved to have been present. The general rouse was transacted and the groom is a well known minimagination. The bride is a popular young transacted and the groom is a well known minimagination and memory. How I would loved to have been present. The general rouse was transacted and the groom is a well known minimagination and memory. How I would loved to have been present. The general rouse was transacted and the groom is a well known minimagination and memory with Judge R. L. Moore with all the would loved to have been present. death. And in all of her afflictions tine of business was transacted and she was never known to murmur and it adjourned to meet December 27 often spoke of the time being near for the last session of the present Mr. Reed Woodall and Miss Margie Mr. Luther Hughes and Miss Jew- giving day. Although we had sev- and pure bred stock raising in Amer- and did not fear death. Mrs. Thom- court. Belt were married at the home of the ell Walker were united in matri- eral inches of snow last week with ica all in two days driving. The fa. ason was a good woman and will be bride,s parents, Nov. 24, Rev. J. B. mony on November 29 at the home the mercury 8 below zero. The new wous "Lincoln Highway" passes our greatly missed by all that knew her.

Funeral services were held at Pi-

NEWS IN BRIEF

went across the Cumberland river After a failure to render a verdict last week to get the right of way the jury that tried "Fatty" Arbuckle signed up to the Crittenden county on the charge of manslaughter, has will probably be let next year. They trial has been set for Jan. 9, 1922.

Official reports from the Departright of way except four or five per- ment of Labor from sixty-five cities show that in forty eities there was sess the damages and go ahead with an average price of $8.11 per hundred

Following a series of shooting hances the value of the land as well scrapes in and near Wichita, Kans., as to decide the value of the land 500 members of the American Legion taken up for road purposes. Therefore have volunteered to aid in preserving el and lasting road through the en- charged with the murder of Maude tire county fit for travel the entire Wilson, Pineville waitress. Lewis is charged with having shot Miss Wilson while they were driving in his

Judge James A. Moore was elect- William Hugh Peal, 23 years old,

Two of his sons and two grandsons family. Early this year a baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. M. N. mother is 30 years old and now has ten children

Charges that Republican candidates of Breathitt county conspired to send Sunday School 9:30 a. m. Let us armed men into various precinets to more have stuck until you accomplished this. I regret that I can't 475 bundles of fodder, walked 4,060 happy and our Lord Jesus will get to ection officers, were made in a suit Preaching 10:50 A. M. Sermon sub- diff, Democrat, contesting the seat

Ballard and McCracken counties who be entired to the past sowed some co-operated with their County Agenta seed that are helping to bear this size of the patent office reports. At above the age of ten, of Kentucky Epworth League 6:00 P. M We Fewer than half of the population figures announced by the Census Bu-ject: "Hiding God's High Values in Lightning recently struck an iron We shall sing the fine old hymns, Kuttawa, in which his children were bed in the home of T. H. Ausenbaugh, and for the spice of life, we shall add sleeping. The children were unharmed and were not awakened by the Kentucky farmers are better off than farmers in almost any other state in the Union, according to a The Ellis Ordway Post No. 111. statement made by Geoffrey Morgan, prison at Atlanta, Ga., for refusing

Robert A. Widenmann, of New York, has filed in the Supreme Court a brief in a case in which he seeks Martha Bradley Thomason, daugh- Amendment declared unconstitutional

FISCAL COURT

NEW CITY COUNCIL

rection Morn. Weep not she is not W. D. Cannan, Tax Collector and

THE CRITTENDEN PRESS

Marion, Ky., Dec. 9, 1921

Published every Friday by W. F. HOGARD & SONS R. E. WILBORN, Mgr. Job Deyt.

Entered as second-class matter February 9th, 1878, at the postoffice at Marion, Kentucky, under the Act Mary and Carrie, left for Evansville of Congress of March 3rd, 1877.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES In County and Zone One$1.50 iting in Marion for several days, re-Zone Two and Beyond$2.00 turned home Friday of last week.

MOONSHINE

It is reported that there is bootlegging and drinking in Marion, also Ray Flanary went to Marion Frithat there are stills in operation in day. the county. Whether or not these prepared to say. He has not seen daughter visited relatives in this or smelled any effects of booze for section the week end. these three years with the exception of one or two instances. On public see Mrs. Hardin Sunday. days when big crowds of people are in town this writer has failed to Mr. C. Hardin, of Tolu, visited his see the effects of booze among the mother Sunday. crowd. Order and quiet and good will have prevailed.

But if there is boot-legging and end with his family in Marion. distilling it ought to be and could be stopped. By a concerted action of the officers and citizens it can and should be broken up.

and Ireland would come to terms after years of confusion and war. It Judge Henderson was here Sunday is to be hoped they do.

Congress convened again this week and begins no doubt a long tedious session. Partisan politics Mrs. Hendrick Mitchell and John will doubtless rule and but little be Quertermous, Jr., are recovering from

The Disarmament Conference is still in session at Washington, D. C. relatives in Fredonia Saturday and Some progress seems to have been Sunday made. No doubt good has already Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Hayden went been accomplished by this conference to Marion Saturday. though the disarmament may not be accomplished it will be sooner or a play here Saturday night. later. The people can not and will not bear up under such unnecessary burdens always.

DEANWOOD

urday and Sunday.

visited Mr. G. Hunt and family the 13 months and 28 days. Then God week end.

S. I. Morse.

of his brother, Mr. Ewell Travis of Wheatcroft Saturday night.

resting place to pay their last tribute us to show you. Wheatcroft Saturday night.

McConnell one night last week.

last week with Mr. J. M. Travis.

Walker and family Sunday.

Miss Wilma Walker spent last can only trust in God and meet him in week with Mrs. Rebecca Walker.

ander were guests of G. D. Lamb and eternal gain. family Sunday.

Miss Freddie Travis visited her mother one night last week.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Hunt-and children spent one night last week with Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Stembridge.

CASAD

Gilliam Bracy went to Marion Wednesday.

Mrs. Ruth Carter and children visited at the home of John Vaughn

Seldon Ainsworth and daughters, last Thursday.

Mrs. Ed Cook, who has been vis-

Mrs. Hardin is 'very sick at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Byarley. Virgil Cook was in Marion Friday reports are true the writer is not Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Franklin and

Dr. Davis, of Tolu, was called to

W. R. Williams spent the week

SALEM

The King Stock Co. have been giv-It looks now that Great Britain ing a series of plays here recently enroute to Smithland.

> John Quertermous is attending court in Smithland this week.

diptheria.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Butler visited

The High School pupils will give

OBITUARY

Everette Eugene Humphery Jr. was born September 3, 1920, one and one half miles southwest of Mexico, Mr. Alfie Cannan was the guest Ky. He was the only child of Mr. and Christmas Time of Mr. T. L. Walker and family Sat- Mrs. E. E. Humphrey and the only grand child of Mrs. N. M. Humphrey. Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Stembridge He staid in his earthly home only in his wisdom saw fit to transplant the little flower to its heavenly home, Mrs. Ruth Walker and children November 1, 1921. He was laid to rest spent Saturday with her mother, Mrs. in the Campbell Graveyard Nov. 2, preciated than well-chosen jewwhere a host of relatives and friends elry. met the bereaved ones at his last stock. It will be a pleasure for f respect.

Bro. Mott made a short talk by RINGS
WAT

All was done for Eugene that earthpower could do, but God called and Miss Jessie Travis spent one day he answered. His stay was short but he found his way into the hearts Messrs. Willie and Corbit Gilbert of all he met. He was a bright little and 'R. Eaton were guests of T. L. fellow, and could bring a smile to any face that was clouded with sorrow. How dark our lives seem without him Mrs. Aima McConnell visited Mrs. but we want to be able to look up ad Buford Vanhooser one day last week. say "Thou will, O Lord not ours." We heaven. Weep not for little Eugen dear fam-Messrs. Virgil and Herschal Alex- ily and friends, for our loss is his

May God's richest blessings be or the family is my prayer. "A place is vacant in our home, * A voice we loved is still. There is a dark void in our heart, day,

That never con be filled."

WF have the goods and the prices that bring the bacon home. Whatever you may need in the way of merchandise---

STOP HERE -- LOOK HERE PRICE HERE!

YANDELL-GUGENHEIM COMPANY

We have always the BEST for the LEAST!

SUITS--OVERCOATS--PANTS

For Work or Play---For Father or Son

We have a style for every man. We have a suit, overcoat, trousers for all sizes --- men, young men and boys---the best of style, the lowest of prices.

Clean Up Sale of Ladies' Coats and Suits

Misses' and Children's Coats Buy Here and Save Your Dollars!

Rugs, Druggets and Linoleums New Patterns -- New Prices

We always have the large stock to select from, and when you buy from us you get dependable goods.

Cotton Goods Shoes for Every Foot Underwear Hats Caps Notions

And you can find your Xmas gifts here. They are what you want and not expensive

Jewelry Time No gift is more highly ap-

Select from our complete urday in Paducah.

WATCHES CUT GLASS SILVERWARE WRIST WATCHES in town Sunday. DIAMONDS

BEADS LEVI COOK

Marion, Kentucky

FREDONIA

N. Dollar was on our streets Mon-

Judge Canada will move to Fre Lela Kemp donia from Princeton soon.

Mys. Luther Elder and Charlie Travis will move to Princeton the first of next week

John Clift met with a severe accident last week when he was scalded while at his mill. He will be confined to his room for a few days.

Mr. Henry Rice has moved to town for the winter to place his children in school.

Miss Mac Belle Lowery has syphoid

this week.

Tom Deboe of Pinkneyville has noved to what is known as the old David Maxwell farm. He will make this place his home for some time.

new home in town. There will be a Christmas tree at The Baptist denomination are to Saturday night December 24. Every- next spring. body is cordially invited to attend. Nellie Harmon and children spent

Dr. John Mott of Crider visited his

Saturday and Sunday with her par-

Mrs. Belle Ray, this week.

DYCUSBURG

Mr. Christman, of Kuttawa, spent several days in town this week.

Mrs. Sue Brashler of Kuttawa is visiting here.

Chas Ray Simmons tof Paducah returned home Tuesday after a few days visit here with friends and rel-

Miss Geneva Cooksey spent Sat-

Miss Pearl Simpkins, of France apent the week end the guest of Misses Ola and Tylene Charles.

Miss Rhea Cooksey is visiting in

Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Hall were

There will be a pie supper at the lity Hall Saturday night.

Dr. R. L. Beeler spent this week

Miss laleen Ferguson entertained a crowd of young people Thursday night of last week at her home. Those present were: Misses Pearl Simpkins of Frances, Tiline Charles, of Padu-Charles and Anna Louise Glenn. Messrs. Anson Bennett, Frank Charies, Hasting Holland, Bennett Raage, Tom Charles and Herbert Hal Kingsolving of Salere was in own Saturday.

Atty. Eugene Graves, of Paducah. spent several days here last week

Miss Tiline Charles entertained a number of friends at her home Wedcertay night of last week.

F. B. Dyeus, r. was in Marion on susiness one day last week.

NOTICE

I will be at the B. I. Allen homestead December 10, between 10 A Ivan Bennett is on the sick list M. and 2 P. M. to show anyone over the farm who may want to buy it. R. M. ALLEN, Ex.

A destructive fire occurred in Haz-Frank Deboe has moved to his worth of property in the business ard, Ky., which destroyed $200,000 part of the city.

the Cumberland Presbyterian church build a $285,000 hospital in Louisville

Henry Phillips and T. R. Bracey of Casad, were in town Thursday turned home Thursday.

A Good Gift for Your Boy or Girl

A Savings Account with us for your boy or girlthat youngster in your home that you want to remember with something substantial-will be a splendid gift, and at the same time if will start that much loved person in the habit of thrift.

What Greater Gift Could You Offer Your Child Than One That Will Encourage Him to Form Good Habits?

Let us tell you about our Savings Accounts for children. Have Santa Claus to slip one of our Savings Pass Books in your little one's stocking Christmas eve.

Farmers Bank & Trust Co.

MARION, KY.

The Best Coal At the Same Price West Kentucky Coal That Burns

Fill up Your Coal-house now and be ready for big fires Christmas.

Delivered, Per Bu.22c Delivered, Per Bu.20c

City Coal & Transfer Co. R. S. Elkins

Phone 31-2

Marion, Ky.

A valuable stock barn near Lexing- A head-on collision of two passenton was burned on the 7th, with 13 ger trains near Philadelphia, occur-Mrs. J. M. Phillips, who has been fine horses, said to be worth $13,000, red last Monday and twenty-seven daughters, Mrs. Mae Lowry and on an extended visit in Arkansas re- The stock and barn was valued at people were killed and many others $18,000. hurt.

National Dry Cleaners

Let us do your Repair Work

Let us do your Dyeing

Let us do your Cleaning

Let us do your Pressing

Tel. 148

L. E. YATES, Prop.

2001 Incommendation (1904)

Having your clothes clean doesn't make you any

Everybody wants to look good to Santa, so let me better, but it certainly does make you look better.

suggest that you call National Dry Cleaners today.

GET YOUR SUITS CLEAN FOR XMAS

The work will please you, and the price is right.

Tel. 148

GRATHWELL UNFOLDS INTERESTING SECRET ABOUT YOUR "HOODOO

Grathwell's lecture subject on his present tour with the Affiliated Lyceum Bureaus. This popular young lecturer "got by" his "hoodoo" several years ago and today he is one of the at popular of the younger lecturers of the American platform. For six yours now he has been in lyceum work in the states and Canada. He presents high ideals in a manner which especially appeals to young people. Velda Juanita, the little babe HDs delivery is a composite of force Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hopkins, is and humor, backed by a pleasing and the sick list at this writing.

School Auditorium Tuesday, Dec. 13 Under Auspices of the Senior Class.

SEASON TICKETS 80c and $1.60

SHADY GROVE

Monday for Alabama, where they the proud parents of a ten pound will spend the winter.

iting his grandparents at Blackford, day of last week.

Miss Cleo Utley Sunday,

ing Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Joyce were the Mr. J. R. Brashier and family have guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. moved into their new home. Alford Stephens Sunday.

may and Thelma Wood v Pearl Horning one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Horning were the Tuesday. guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Our teachers at Boaz are prepar-Tucker Horning Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Stephens have Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Duncan and moved to their new home at this Mrs. Beulah Henry visited Bedford place.

were guests of Mrs. Pearl Horning visiting relatives here the past few

BLACKBURN

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Joyce, of Sha-"Getting By Your Hoodoo" is Sam dy Grove, moved to their farm near this place last Presday.

C. P. McConnell and W. B. Stem bridge and Riley Lamb went to Marion on business Tuesday. Mrs. Alma McConnell spent a few days last week with her mother, Mrs. Laura East, of Shady Grove. Misses Ila Stembridge and Verda

he guest of Mrs. Roy Joyce. Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hopkins and children spent Sunday at the home of O. J. McConnell and family. W. B. Stembridge spont Sunday he guest of his brother, Isaac Tom Hunt, of the Crider section, ooser's farm near this place.

Rev. W. C. McConnell, of Deangood, attended prayer meeting at terms and one spring, everlasting his place Wednesday night.

setion last week.

Mrs. J. H. East and daughter, Verda, visited her smother one day last

F. Clift of Fredonia was in this section one day last week.

Velda Juanita, the little babe of Willoughby Casper went to Providence last week.

SEVEN SPRINGS

Mr. Moat Duvall took some cattle to Evansville last week.

Mr. Hobert Greenles and Miss few days ago. Ethel Farris, of near Salem, went to last week

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Tudor left Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Kirk are baby boy.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Leet are vis- M. L. Patten was in Marion Tues-

Miss Susie Guess was the guest of Collin and Carrolton Patton visited relatives near Emmaus last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynneth Brown were Mrs. Nellie Bennett, of Paducah, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Tucker Horn- visited relatives in this section last week.

James Engler and wife visited W. Misses Inez Horning and Rae Cole- Guess and family near Koon last

Guy Patton was in Marion last ing for a Christmas entertainment.

Binkes near Frances last week Mrs. Nannie Boyd and children Willie Clark and wife have been

Use SAPOLIO

For Every Room in the House

In the kitchen SAPOLIO cleans pots, pans, oilcloth and cutlery; in the bathroom SAPOLIO cleans porcelain, marble, tiling

the wash basin and bathtub; in the hallway SAPOLIO cleans painted woodwork, doors, sills and concrete or stone floors. See that the name SAPOLIO is on every package.

ENOCH MORGAN'S

U.S.A.

SONS CO.

New York

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Vanhooser of Deanwood spent Saturday and Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. J.

-I WILL ON-

Monday, Dec. 12th At the Court House, Marion

East spent one afternoon last week Offer for Sale to the highest and best bidder the following Property:

One Farm, known as the B. I. Allen homestead The said Farm contains about 90 acres and is located 4 miles Southwest of Marion adjoining the J. H. Moore farm. Sixty-five acres in cultivation will move soon to Mrs. E. J. Van. and more timber than needed to keep up the farm 1 house and Barn and other buildings, two Cis-

The property described will be sold for Cash Leet of Shady Grove were in this or on a credit of six months with approved sec-

> Possession will be given at once. Sale takes place about 1:00 P. M.

Sam Carnahan Auct.

Route 3

Marion, Ky.

Jim Minner, wife and daughter, of Cedar Grove, spent the week end vis-tended the funeral of his step-mother Pleasant Grove. at Chapel Hill on Tuesday of last iting relatives here.

Mr. George Conyer, of Morley, Mo.,

MIDWAY

Mrs. Lina Davidson and daughter. sister and aunt, Lou Batley, of Al-teacher, Miss Anna Laura Howerton, Mr. and Mrs. Will Todd, of Hurri- week end with home folks.

len Springs. Ill., were guests last Tuesday of Mrs. Dean Franklin. Mr. Reuben Wheeler and wife at-visited relatives in this vicinity a Mrs. Jesse Franks has been real sick the past week.

Mr. Jasper Franklin, wife and Marion and were united in marriage Susie McKinney, accompanied by their daughter. Lemah, and our school

How many of your friends have Victro-Why not make a list of those friends and then for each of them select records that they will enjoy, and-will make splendid

RECORDS

CHRISTMAS

gifts for any of your friends who have Victrolas.

Stop at our store and hear some of our new recordsit may help you to solve some of your gift problems.

G. W. Yates

Music Store EVERYTHING MUSICAL

Telephone 46-7

MARION, KY.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Wheeler.

Mr. John Farmer moved to the Mrs. Lina Davidson and sister, Lou

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Little, near atives here.

Tuesday with his sister, Mrs. George McKinney.

J. H. Price spent a few days last Taylor's place week with his daughter, Zetta Clark.

of Repton, were recent guests of cane were guests last Wednesday of her sister, Mrs. Clara LaRue.

Will Brown far a last Wednesday. Batley, returned to Tolu Wednesday of last week after spending several Mr. Vernie Summers and wife days visiting Mrs. Davidson's daughspent Thanksgiving with her parents ter, Susie McKinney, and other rel-

H. B. Watson and J. H. Price were Dallas Davidson, of Tolu, visited in Marion one day last week.

Jasper Franklin and Will Conver rushed rock last week near Mr. Bill

Miss Sallie Sullenger spent the

Mail Orders Will Be Carefully Filled

An Old Fashioned Xmas

Planning, working, giving for the happiness of somebody else--the old fashioned Christmas spirit incarnate, so dear and unforgetable.

This store stands ready with a treasure house of gifts to aid you in your choosing--the gift to make your pleasure and happiness complete.

Season's Smartest Suit Modes in a Timely Sale

"Same old Suit the livelong day!" is the plaint of many a tired Christmas shopper. This special Suit selling is just in the nick of time for a Suit will freshen you up like magic. This collection includes simple tailleurs of incredible smartness and distinguished models with a dressier trend. Fur trimmed styles offer particularly notable values. A splendid assortment arranged for your choosing at

25% DISCOUNT

The New Gloves---Holiday Assortment

Gloves are taking to themselves new ittle whims and ancies. The ho Iny assortments presented are all isparkle with un things in gauntlet wrists odd stitchings, striking color combinations and smart new styles Novelty French Kid Bandele. floves, two button, fancy embroidered. Over seam stitch no black, white, brown, castor, cream and

Small Furs, Satisfyingly Smart

These fashionable Neckpieces contribute an air of smartness shtainable through no other nedium. Values presented are self-evident to one conversant with Fur quality and style achievement Stoles

Throws, Chokers carls in variety of choice peltres; your choice now at a discome

108, with delightful Japanese Robes, warm and becoming; and oig Blanket Robes that defy cold expected new

Kid Gauntlet or Fielder Glover with strap, fancy and combinabrown, tan, castor Twelve and sixteen button is white, $3,50 and

Fifty Cups Delicious Coffee to the Pound

New Handbags to Match New Costumes

Gifts of Negligees

Give Comfort All the

Year

The kindly thought that prompts

he comfort-giving gift is beauifully expressed here. Frivitous

Silken Negligees adorably lacy

and frilly; dainty Crepe Kimo-

CORDUROY ROBES

$5 to $9.50

CREPE KIMONOS

$2.50 to $6.50

BLANKET ROBES

$3.50 to $8.50

LACY NEGLIGEES

$8.50 to $25

Almost a Handbag to each cosume, seems to be today's manlate, and their diversified charms nake a multitude of them wholy desirable. Smart Leather stags and Purses for the tailleur, supremely elegant Beaded affairs and beautiful Silk and Satin erestions for dressier requirements. A fascinating assortment at prices you'll approve for g'ft and personal purchases,

The CLAN CALL

By Hapsburg Liebe

Illustrations by Irwin Myers

Copyright, by Doubleday, Page & Co.

woman, if you had an education. Babe Littleford pursued with childlike eagerness: "And what makes you want me to be such a s-splendid woman?"

Dale lifted his gray eyes and anawered her frankly: "Because I expect to marry you some day.' Babe Littleford blushed deeply. Her eyes were glad, filled with rejoicing. If he didn't love her now, at least just a weeny-teeny bit, he wouldn't be thinking of marrying her some day, certainly, and this conclusion made her happier than she had ever been in all her life before. She wished wildly that she could bug him with all her might-and she had a big notion to do

But what would be think of her? Well, there would come a day when she would surely hug him with all her might. She would simply break his blessed bones, almost,

"Will you go to Patricia temorrow?" be asked.

She really believed that she ought to go. But the thought of leaving him was more hateful than ever, now that she knew he meant to marry her. She strove to change the subject-

"See that little, teeny flower over there-that little, teeny, blue one? she asked, pointing. "That's a dayflower. It's the purest blue of any. They call it a dayflower because it don't last but jest one single day." And again, pointing: "See that little, teeny, purple flower over there at them twisted laurels? That's called Job's tears, and they don't last but one day, seither. That little red. spidery thing is bee balm. Over yander at the bick'ry is monkshood. I l'arned the sames out o' a book Major Bradley loant me. Hadn't we better be a goin' toward home? It-it'll be a-comin' dark purty soon, won't it?"

Sald Dale, "Will you go back to Patricia tomorrow?"

"I-I've been a-wonderin'," murmured Babe. "Which is proper, Bill, bust or burst?"

Dale spoke quickly. "Burst for you, tust for me. Will you go back to Patricia?"

Beaten, Babe Littleford drew a long breath and smiled. Yes. Mister Dule," she answered resignedly. "I will. I'll go wharwhere you want me to go, ef-if it's to Torment. Now tell me how it comes that I find my people and their toemies as thick as m'lasses in a jug. while we walk on." . .

nd's cable from having seen Habe Littleford safely to her father's door, he found Major Bradley and By Heck walting at the gate. Heck had some important, bad news, he sald.

"Better not tell me about it until after supper," replied Dale. "I'm as hungry as you ever were. By.'

They went in to sit down to one of the best meals Addle Moreland had ever prepared. When they had fintshed eating, John Moretand led the way into the best room, where they took chairs. The major produced cigars. By Heck, swollen with a feeling of groatness, lighted the wrong end of his weed, faced Dale, and be gan to unburden his mind of its weight of information.

"Well, Bill, old boy," he began and then stopped to wonder why his cigar wouldn't smoke as well as the major's. "Well, Bill, old boy," he went on final-"Henderson Goff, he's shore been as busy as a one-armed man in a bumblebee's nest. I cain't see, igod, what's wrong with this here scegyar, He's went and brung about twenty-five Torreys from two places knowed as Jerus'lem cove and Hatton's hell, to help work his mine when he gits it. They're ail a-puttin' up with them Balls. The Torreys is part Injun, Cherokee Injun, and I've heered it said 'at they was as bad or wass'n rattlesnake

Major Bradley blew a little cloud of smoke upward. "More of the game of bluff, perhaps," he suggested.

"I'm inclined to think so," thoughtfully said Daie. "Well, we'll avoid trouble as long as we decently can; and when we can no longer get around it, we'll call in as much of the law as we can get, and meet it half-way. Eh, Hayes?

"Sure," nodded the mining expert. Dale was on his way to the new siding the following morning, when he met Henderson Goff. Again Dale was forethly reminded of stories he had heard and rend of Mississippi river steamboat gamblers of the long ago. Goff stepped out of the trail, smiled and spoke with apparent good humor. Dale passed him without a word.

Then the shyster coal man called out, "Ready to sell yet?" The Moreland Coal company's manager halted and faced about with a puckering of his brows.

"For a fair price, yes." "Just what would you call a fair price?"

"Oh, somewhere between two and three hundred thousand," promptly. Goff sniffed, and the corners of his mouth came down.

"You don't want much. You won't get it from me!

"I don't want 4t from you." Date turned and went on. He was sorry that he had stopped to talk with the fellow.

That afternoon he again met Goff in the trail. The bare sight of the shyster made him very angry now, and his right hand fell upon the butt of about to sidestep in the laurels, when Dale caught him roughly by the arm.

about cut your little swath. We've side of the scrubby oak, had enough of you. You can't get this coal at any price, and the sooner you get yourself out of this country the etter and safer it will be for you To be plain, I'm pretty apt to three you the very next time I see you. Now move on!" Goff went of laughing wickedly. Oh, all right, Dale; go ahead and uild the little road for me!" he said. Late that night every sleeper in the valley of the Doe was awakened by a great, rumbling explosion, which was followed almost immediately by anther great, rumbling explosion. the reverberations had died away, Bill Dale had dressed himself and was standing on the vine-hung front porch, and he was only a few seconds ahead of John Moreland.

Then there came the tearing sound of a heavy explosion miles to the east-

"Do ye know what it is?" inquired the mountaineer. "They've stolen our dynamite from the tobacco-barn, and blown up the office and supplies building and the commissary building; also they've blown up the big trestle near the siding," Dale answered.

'At's my guess, toe," said More-

Within the next half hour Dale and Hayes, Major Bradley, and the menfolk of the Morelands and the Littlefords had gathered around the wreck of the two big, unfaished frame buildings. Dale blamed himself much for having left dynamite unguarded in the tobacco-barn-but nobody else blamed him for it.

"It's time to let the law in," he said when he had viewed the jumbled mass of broken planks and timbers by the light of lanterns. He turned to stalwart Luke Moreland.

"You get on my horse and ride to Cartersville for the sheriff. Tell him he can get the best posse in the world right here, if he needs one. It's the proper thing, isn't it, major?"

'Yes," said Major Bradley, "It's the proper thing. You've got a real grievance now. But I fancy Goff had nothing to do with this; he is shrewd enough to know that a thing like this would cook his goose. Goff has been playing a bluff game all along, you Some Balls or some Torreys, perhaps a mixture of both, have done this without Goff's knowing snything about it. I'd have Sheriff Flowers arrest several of the Balis and several of the Torreys, and try to scare them into turning state's evidence to save themselves."

The major finished in a low tone, because of the probability for eavesdroppers, and in this he was wise.

We'll do that," Dale decided. He faced Hayes, his right-hand man, When Dale returned to John More- and began to give orders like a vetto take their rifles with them to no shot unless it was in defense of ful compensation. . life or property. In the morning every in operation ten miles toward the lowland for more building material.

By Heck joined them then. He guessed just what had happened, plucked at Dale's sleeve and whispered: "Sposen I takes a sneak of two toward them lowdown, wainut-eyed, knock-kneed, dadblamed Balls and Torreys and finds out what I can find out; hey, Bill?"

The answer came readily: "Sure, you be detective. But be careful that you don't lose anything for us, y' know, if you don't gain anything."

By Heck and his rifle disappeared in the darkness of the mountain night. A little after work-time that day, Bill Dale started slone on the way of the narrow-gauge railroad for the siding. He wished to see for himself just what the damage had been to the trestle, and he hoped to meet Goff, or a Ball, or a Torrey, and learn something that would be to his advantage.

Before he had covered two miles, he had seen two of the enemy skulking through the woods, and he recognized them for Torreys from Jerusalem Cove and Hatton's Hell; he knew It by their very swarthy skin, their high cheekbones and thgir coarse black hair, the outcroppings of the Cherokee Indian blood in them. They looked cunning and wicked. Dale loosened in its holster the big revolver that Major Bradley had persuaded him to carry for his own protection. John Moreland had taught him how to use

At a point near where the little stream that flowed past the Halfway switch emptied into Doe river, where Doe river turned almost squarely to the left, Dule halted abruptly. He had seen a man dart behind a scrubby oak some thirty yards ahead of him; quite naturally, he concluded that the fellow meant to wayiny him, and he, too. stepped behind a tree, a big hemlock.

A silent minute went by. Then Dale put his hat out on one side of the tree and peeped from the other side; it was an old trick that Grandpap Moreland had told him about. A rifle cracked promptly and sharply, and a bullethoic appeared in the rim of his

Following it, there came the coarse, bass voice of Black Adam Ball, the mountaineer Goliath;

cain't hit my hat!"

Dale's temper, the temper that had always been so hard to keep under me?" control, rose quickly. He tried to reason with himself, and couldn't; his was a accident?" he sneered. passion mastered him. He snatched the big revolver from its holster and the hig revolver on his hip. Goff was cocked it. With as steady a hand as ever held a weapon trained, he began to take aim at Ball's slouch hat, the "See here," he said sharply, "you've half of which was in plain view at one

> "I fooled you nee back there the middle of the over, he erled hoty, "and now I'm, going to fool you again!"

> There was in his voice that old, old primitive rage, which frightened him. and puzzled him too, is his better moments.

He let down the bead until it was barely visible in the notch, and eased off the trigger. The revolver roured and spat forth a tiny tongue of flame and a little cloud of white smoke. Ball sprang erect, wheeled, and fell crashing to the leaves!

Dale dropped his weapon. He went as white as death, and his two hands clutched uncertainly at his throat. He was a murderer! No, he wasn't-his bullet had gone wild; it had struck Ball's head on the other side of the tree, by accident. But how could be prove that it had been an accident? Would any jury believe him? It was far from probable.

He stepped from behind the bemlock and went toward the writhing Goliath, whose legs only were visible

Then a third shot rang out on the morning stiffness. It had been fired from a point some little distance away, and Dule's condition of mind at he moment was such that he didn't even note the direction from which the sound had come. He was unburt, and he had not heard the whine of a bullet or the pattering of shot on the leaves. When he looked about him, he saw no one; neither did he see any telitale smoke. Perhaps, he thought dimly, it had been a squirrel-hunter that had fired that shot. He forget about it very quickly for the time be ing, and went on toward Adam Ball, who now was lying perfectly still. There was a bullet-hole through and through the great, shaggy head. The face behind the short, curly black beard was of the coloriess bue of soapstone. The giant hillman was

Bill Dale knelt there beside Black Adam. Again he clutched at his throat with his two shaking hands, and this time he tore his blue finnnel shirt. All the agony and all the remorse in the universe seemed to be gathering there in his heart. Never before had he seen death. Its grim presence terrified him. That the deplorable thing had been so accident, due to his faulty marksmanship, mattered little. had killed a man, and the blood-red brand of Cain was burning away on his brow; he was a man in a hell his own making. And kneeling there Bill Dale sobbed a great sob that shook his broad shoulders as a violent ague would have shaken them. He tried to look at the blue-edged hole in the shargy head; at the cruel, brutish face that was of the coloriess hue of soapstone. Merciful tears in the morning, but they were to fire | was a compensation, a pitifully beauti-

Five minutes passed, five minutes available wagon in the valley was to that were as five years to this man be sent to the little sawmill that was who had never been in the presence of death before. Then he realized that he was being surrounded by kinsmen of the dead mountaineer. He looked up into their ashen, angry faces, and they cursed him. Big and gripping brown hands were placed upon him; several rifles were turned upon him He arose and spread out his arms, and offered his breast to the frowning muzzies. They could give him, at least, oblivion.

"Shoot, if you like," he said bitterly.

"Shoot, If You Like!" He Said Bitterly. "It was an accident, y'know, but-shoot, if you like. "No," commanded Adam Ball's father, a slender and angular old man with a straggling iron-gray beard-"No. don't shoot. Shootin's too quick, by gonnies. And 'en, it ain't accordin' to law." (Queer how suddenly he re- "Say, sheriff," he chittered, "have put a hole in yore new hat and to hung by the neck ontel dead in the Adam's deathshow ye 'at I ain't no bad shot. You, jaijyard at Cartersville. Ye'uns put down them thar guns. Put down all o' them thar guns right now; hear

He turned back to Dale. "Ye say it

"Yes, it was an accident." "Like the old devil!" roared Black Adam's father. He stopped and picked up his son's black slouch hat and examined it. as though you were not under arrest There were two bullet holes close to at all." gether in the rim-and one of them had been there for a long time.

"John Moreland he's been a l'arnin' ye how to shoot," he said, "and volive shore l'arned purty d-d well. It must been yore third shot 'at got Adam.

"I fired only once," disagreed Date. "Your son fired first; I fired second; and somebody else, I haven't the slightest idea who, fired the other

"Aw, shet up! Ye can tell it at the trial," growled old Ball. Then to his kinsmen We'll hold Dale right here, boys, ontel the shuriff he's sent atter comes. And we'll not move Adam, which same accordin' to law, I reckou Shuriff Tom Flowers'll find a different job from what he expected to find; won't he, boys? Say, I wisht one o' you fellers'd gi' me a good, big chaw o' tobacker. Be durned ef I don't. Adam's death, it has made me feel sort . bad, by gonnies, and tobacker's allus

Bill Dale, you hain't got a chaw o' tobacker on ye, have ye-bought to backer, store tobacker? It's a durged sight better'n home-made, I says. Ye say ye don't chew! Chew-b-li mured. Whyn't ye say 'chaw,' like a man! I allus knowed ye wasn't no 'count, nohow. Nobody 'at don't chaw tobacker ain't no 'count. . . All right, Jim Ike," to his nephew, "I'il take a chaw o' yores, then. And I'll take a tol'ably chaw, Jim Ike, 'cause Adam's death has made me feel sort o' bad, and tobacker's aligs a consolation."

The sounds of the shooting had carried far, and it ween't long until the scene of the tragedy was crowded with Balls and Torreys, Littlefords and Morelands. Major Bradley and Hayes, too, were there. Every man of them was armed; a very little thing might easily turn the place into a shambles The major saw this, and he was afraid. He drew the leaders of the Morelands and the Littlefords aside, and finally prevalled upon them to do their utmost toward keeping peace to til the coming of the sheriff. At first John Moreland and Ben Littleford were for taking Bill Dale from the Balls and Torreys who guarded him, if they had to depopulate the whole Bail settlement, Jerusalem Cove and Hatton's Hell to accomplish it! Happily, the major's counsel prevalled.

Sheriff Tom Flowers was a tall and lithe, smooth-faced man. He arrived with Luke Moreland at noon, after hours of hard riding. He saw the high tension, and immediately steeled himself to handle the situation. After riding straight to the center of the gathering and there balting his horse, he said evenly

"In order that I may know who to arrest. I must know something of the question, and it was a prayer, too. circumstances. Only one man must speak at a time. No playing bad with sae; and remember that, gentlemen. I'll certainly drop the fellow who starts playing hose with me, if it's the last move I make on earth. Now some body gently use his powers of speech.

Major Bradiey, more soldierlike than went forward. "As the attorney of Mr. Date, who stands accused of killing Adam Ball," he said to the officer. "I beg leave to state that my client will do no taiking at present. Date understood, and he did not

But old Ball had something to say,

and he proceeded to say it: "He kliled my son, Adam," pointing to Dale, "In cold blood. Me and about a dozen o' my kin was on our way over Long ridge to look at a bee tree, when we heered three pistol shots. We was right up thar," pointing to the porthward, "and we come a running over here to see, by gonnies, what was the matter. Well, by gonnies, we found Bill Dale thar down on his knees saide o' my son, Adam, who was as dead as h-I or deader; and Bill Dale was a-sobbin' and a-sobbin' about it. And of he never killed my son Adam, what was he a sobbin' and a sobbin about, I ax you that? And my son Adam, he had a rifle, by gonnles, but he never shot none at all. He was with us up to a few minutes before, and he hadn't shot none all mornin'. Shuriff Flowers, I wisht ye'd gi' me a good, hig chaw o' tobacker, by gonnles, 'cause my son Adam his death, It has made me feel bad."

Major Bradley stopped caressing his well-kept gray imperial, walked over to the dead man's rifle, picked it up and put its muzzle to his nose. He scented fresh powder-smoke. Then he faced old Ball with a strange, hard gitter in his blue eyes.

"You are a liar, sir," he said with a peculiar politeness.

A stir ran quickly over the Haits and Torreys. Sheriff Flowers called out:

He continued: "Where is Mr. Dale's revolver?" The Balls had it. They produced it. It had three empty chambers when it should have had but one!

"Quiet, there!" and there was quiet.

"Pass it to me butt first," ordered the law's representative. He knew that many a man had been shot while taking a revolver barrel first, and he was taking no chances.

Old Ball obediently turned the weapon around.

spected the majesty of the law!) we plumb forgot about me axin' re for to meet her. She stopped and clasped

"You cain't fool me. I jest shot to "We'd a durned sight ruther see him a chaw o' store-bought? By gonnies, Flowers turned to Dale.

"I have heard through Luke Moreland," he said with more or less of feeling in his voice, "a good many things in your favor. I want you to know that I'm sorry to have to take you and place you in the Cartersville jail. To show you that I mean it, I'll spare you the irons and allow you to ride your own horse along beside me,

Dale had by this time worn the keen edge from his grief by means of his great will power. He bowed slightly to the officer and replied with grave

courtesy: "Believe me, sir," with the very faintest trace of a smile, "I am very much obliged to you." Luke Moreland led up the sleek young bay that Bill Dale had named Fox, and Dale swung himself easily lute the saddle. He faced the sheriff. "If you're ready to go, air," he said, "I am."

Together they rode through the woodiand toward the broad, green valley, with the Littlefords, the Morelands, Major Bradley and Hayes following closely behind them. Up on the side of David Moreland's mountain there had been a silent and inseen witness to the arrest of Bill, ed for the lowland and Cartersville She was hidden behind a jall, gnaried and twisted clump of sheeplaurel, sitting on a patch of tiny, dainty, pure blue dayflowers -crushing in her hands the tiny purple blossoms that are known as Job's tears.

"Lord, what'll I do now?" she mur

"Lord, What'll I Do Now!" She Murmured.

It was a great and unanswerable "Lord, what'll I do now?" she re-

When Bill Date had ridden out of her sight, she threw down the crushed flowers and flung herself prostrate, with her face close to the bemlock nædles and the earth, and wept low and bitterly, and wept and wept-"Lord, what'll I do now?"

CHAPTER XI

By Heck Keeps a Secret.

When Sheriff Tom Flowers and the others had been gone for half an hour, Elizabeth Littleford sat up in the silence. It was a great and heavy silence that hovered there over the north end of David Moreland's mountain. There was not even the drumming of a yel lowhammer, not even the saucy chattering of a boomer squirrel, not even the twittering of a bird. Not a leaf stirred anywhere. Everything seemed lifeless. It was almost as though she were the sole inhabitant of the world. Then she thought. It was noontime and the officer and his prisoner would doubtless halt at John Moreland's cabin for the moonday meal; and if she hastened she would get to see Bill

Dale again. So she ran like a doe through the green woodland, through the tangle of laurel and tvy and over the moss overed stones, across a shoulder of David Moreland's mountain. She was barefooted, and her dress was a simple garment of white-dotted blue ratico, and her long brown hair flowed sehind her like the hair of a young witch-because of the excitement of the morning, she had forgotten to give it its usual daily plaiting.

As she drew near to the Moreland leader's home, she saw Bill Dale and the sheriff walk out at the gateway and mount their horses. Major Bradley came out, and he, too, mounted his horse; and she was glad that he was going along. There was a great crowd; all the Littlefords were there, and sil the Morelands, and old Granny Heck, the fortune-teller. On every face Babe saw signs of sympathy and sorrow Her eyes filled. She was so glad that they, too, loved him. It was worth going to Jail to know that one was loved like that! Not that it didn't burt to see him going to jall, of course. Jall and horror are words that mean the same to the mountain dweller.

She went on to tell him good-by. She knew it would be hard, but she steeled herself; she would be a Littleford, and strong. He saw her coming, and he turned his bay horse and rode her hands, with her arms down full length, and tried to smile at him. "You promised me," he said gently, "that you'd go back to Patricia and finish your education." "I keep my promises," was the quick reply, "jest like every other Littleford that ever lived kept their promises. I would ba' went back this mornin', ef it hadn't ha' been-And there she broke off abruptly. After a slient moment, she continued sadly, buil tearfully: "And yet-and yet-the's not a bit o' use in me a-goin' back now!" Why?" Date was smiling, and she was glad to note that he did not appear to be grieving over his misfer-

"'Cause the ain't," simply.

"But you'll go?"

"Yes," she said, "In the mornin' I'll

He bent toward her and held down his hand, "Good-by, little girl. I hope it will come out all right, and I believe it will."

Babe slowly lifted her hand to bis.

Her eyes were downcast. "Good-by," she told him brokenly. "And I hope it will come out all right, too-God knows I do, Bill Dale,"

Thus they parted. Pale rode back to the sheriff and Major Bradley, and a minute later the three of them start-

When a bend in the dusty ox-wagon road had hidden them from view, Elizabeth Littleford turned homeward.

Her mother followed her. The younger woman dropped to the stone step at the vine-hung front porch with the air of or , who is very tired, plucked a full-blown marigold and began absently to tear its petals slowly apart. Mrs. Littleford looked out across the meadows, sighed, smoothed back her gray balt both hands, and sat down beside her daughter.

"I wouldn't werry about it, Babe, honey," she finally said. Then she too plucked a marigold and began to tear its petals slowly apart. "Ef he killed Adam Ball, it was to save him self. He's a good man, boney. I think he's about the best man I ever seed.

"No, he never killed Adam Ball to save bisself even," Babe replied. "He's a fighter, but he ain't no killer. Listen, mother, it might ha' been this

"He is ahind of a tree, and Adam is ahind of another tree. Adam shoots at his hat, and he shoots at Adam's hat-which is the regilar way of a Well two-man fight, as you know. suddenly Adam be jumps up like be's been shot, and falls a-groundn' and a twistin'. Bill Dale, a thinkin' he's killed Adam, comes out from shind of his tree. Havin' drawed Bill Dale out into the open by his trick, Adam gits ready to shoot and kill him. Jest as Adam is about to shoot, somebody eise shoots and kills Adam and saves Bill Dale-mebbe the' ain't time fo' any-thing else. Now don't ye see? And don't it all sound natchel, mother?"

"I rorkon it does," granted the old "But who was it shot Black Adamy

"Somebody who is a friend o' Bill Dale's," said Babe, "Somebody who was a folierin' Rill with the idee o' pertectin' him of he needed it. Somebody who knowed it was dangerous fo' him to go off by hisself in the woods that away. I've got it reasoned out jest like this. ever it was 'at was friend enough to Bill Daie to kill a man to save him will be friend enough to own up when the proper time comes and keep Bul Dale from a bein' hung. Whoever it was 'at done it is skeered bad now, but later on he'll shore tell it, ef it'll save Bill. You jest wait and see,

"I hain't never fo'got," Babe went on, after a moment, "about Black Adam Ball a tellin' me about a workin that same trick on a man over in Nawth Ca'liner-and he killed the man. The law never found it out. And ye see what Black Adam got. 'Who lives by the sword shall perish by the sword.' It's in the Good Book, mother, honey; and everything in the Good Book is God A'mighty's truth, as you know." "Ef I was pluned down to guess who it was 'at done it," drawled Mrs. Littleford, "I'd guess it was Hy Heck He was a plumb fool about Hill Dale. His maw she says he talks in his sleep about Bill Dale. He was allus a foilerin' him around like a dawg."

Babe pointed to the mendow.

aged and stooped and witchlike won an was limping slowly through the clover, coming toward them, "Granny Heck," muttered Babe, The neighborhood's newsbearer and fortune teller itmped on up to the cabin, and dropped to the stone step beside Hen Littleford's wife and daughter. "La, ia, ia!" she panted, for the days were warm. "And hain't it jest turrible! I wisht I may die this minute of I wouldn't migh't nigh as soon see my own son go to jall! But 'en it'il all come out right yit, Babe. I seed it in the cyards, and I seed it in the cup. Babe, honeydumplin", he never no more killed Adam 'an I killed him mysel". I tell ye, the's been some awful ongodly work done, somehow. I know Hill Dale, and the' shore hain't

Babe spoke suddenly to her mother: "I've got to go and wash and fron my new white dress. Acause because I'm a-goin' back to Mrs. McLaurin, like I promised I'd go. I'm a goin' in the mornin', on the fust train. Ye might as well inform pap to batch up my railroad money, mother."

nary durned drap o' killer blood in Just then By Heck stopped before the gate.

Continued Next Week

LISTEN!!

NO MAN has ever retired on the money he spent!

Like the power of Niagara upon the turbine wheel, is the effect of accumulated dollars in the commercial circle. The great river gathers its strength gradually-and so may you. But there must be a beginning, however small. One hundred pennies are enough to open a savings account, and every dollar you leave will earn four per-cent.

FARMERS & MERCHANTS BANK Tolu, Kentucky

Ed Newbell was here Saturday on School, was in town Saturday.

D. H. Nation, of Repton, was in Tribune, were here Saturday. the city last Friday.

here Friday of last week.

Miss Iva Brantley spent the week end in Biackford.

Friday of last week.

Willie Jones, of Sturgis, was in Marion last Friday.

the week end in Blackford.

Mesdames Kuykendall and Rhinehart went to Evansville last Friday.

tian Endeavor will meet on Sunday, and Mrs. John Newbell. the 11th, at the Main Street Presbyterian Church at 6 o'clock.

T. J. Sieantaker of Sulphur Spring was here Saturday on business.

Mrs. Calvin Hunt of the Tribune here Wednesday. section shopped in town Saturday.

arrived in Marion last Friday after and acco

..... J. B. Carter, of Levias, was here

aturday.

Marion Saturday. Lafie Claghorn, teacher of Brown to Evansville Tuesday shopping.

J. M. and Miss Virginia Hill. of

Hon. T. C. Bennett has moved his Rev. Richardson, of Repton, was office from the Carnahan building to lem were shopping here Saturday, from Hopkinsville where he has been the new Frisbie building on Main

J. L. LaRue, of the Salem section, D. J. Travis went to Wheatcroft was here Saturday and like many others are doing, came in and sub. Patterson were here Saturday, Messrs. Clements, Sullenger and Clifton went to Evansville Tuesday Alley shipped 59 hogs and 38 steers shopping. Sam Carnahan and family spent Saturday. Prices paid for hogs 6 1-2c for tops and 4c for steers.

scribed for the Press.

Mrs. Frank Dodge, of Sturgis, visited here last week

The Stork left a lovely baby girl Hon, T. C. Bennett made a busi-The Young Peoples Society Christon the 26th of November with Mr. ness trip to Dixon Tuesday.

faw, was in Marion Saturday."

O. Boaz, of Fredonia, were shopping Tuesday on business.

All persons owing the undersigned was in Marion Tuesday. Mrs. Nellie Moore and little son are herewith notified that all notes Repton, Ky.

Let Us Help You Solve

Your Gift Problems

This is an invitation for you to visit our store and take a look at our big line of goods. The biggest and completest line we

Hundreds and Hundreds of Dolls

Fancy Vases & Dishes Beautiful Glassware

Toys of All Sorts for the Children

FRUITS, NUTS, CANDIES OF ALL KINDS

Let Us Furnish the Good Eats for Your

have had since before the war.

Christmas Dinner.

Rev. Robert Lear returned to Marion Wednesday.

Mrs. Henry Paris went to Evansville Wednesday shopping.

Marriage license were issued on same as usual. Tuesday to Mr. J. B. Hurt and Miss Cordie Lemon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Jones of Princeton were here Wednesday.

W. H. Guess, of Fredonia, was here Saturda; on business.

Ernest and Miss Catherine Hughes went to Evansville Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taylor, of Salem, were shopping here Wednesday.

John M. Nunn and family, of Kansas, who are visiting in this section, were in Marion Monday.

Miss Anice Boston spent the week end in Clay.

The local post of the American brother and family of Nortonville. Legion have established headquarters in the rooms recently vacated by T. C. Bennett.

Mr. A. Koltinsky, prominent cititen of Princeton, brother of H. Kol-

Rev. F. L. McDowell conducted the funeral of Mrs. Tosh at Crider week. Mrs. E. J. Vanhooser, of Clay, was Monday, Dr. Henry Crawford, wife and Mrs. C. W. Haynes visited in Wick- Cadiz for a short visit to her brothliff the first of the week.

Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Hayden, of Sa-Nice line Christmas goods and latest books. MARY CAMERON Misses Bertha Graves and Lola

Mesdames I. H. Clements and W.

-Magazines make nice Christmas been visiting her brother, Henry. Miss Lela Kemp, teacher at Haf- presents. I take subscriptions for all the magazines, MARY CAMERON

Mesdames Annie Threlkeld and D. M. A. King, of Repton was here

S. F. Peck of Dycusburg section

unts must be paid by Jan. Miss Adaline Carter of Levias left an absence of eighteen years to vis. 1, 1922. J. A. NATION & SON. Tuesday for Winchester to spend the winter.

Mrs. Annie Baker was in Marion burg, was in Frances last week.

Miss Nannie Rochester, who has Sunday. een working with the Red Cross, ame home Tuesday to visit her Miss Zola Simpkins visited Miss parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Rochester. Zula and Inez Burklow Wednesday.

Bud Small and family moved to Marion Tuesday and will occupy the H. Sullivan property in Rochester addition which he has purchased.

Luther Vaughn has rebuilt a nice time, sungalow where his former residence was burned in Rochester addition.

Al Orr, of Cave Spring, was here Sunday. Tuesday.

W. K. Joyce and family left here Saturday with Tom Hall and wife, Tuesday to make their home in Ok-nare Tuesday from blind staggers, bell. It was supposed to have been caused H. Kinsolving and P. Polk, both by eating sorghum cane.

W. Rankin was here Tuesday on business.

Mrs. F. I. Travis, of Tribune was Mrs. Add Davis was the guest of cisiting Mrs. E. L. Nunn Tuesday. Mrs. Davis Thursday.

A. J. Pickens was in Tuesday and Mrs. Thomas Perryman of Mexisubscribed for the Press.

Judge Aaron Towery, of Shady Grove was in Marion Tuesday on

J. Willard Daughtrey has accepted a position with R. R. Donnely and health at this writing. Sons of Chicago and left Tuesday for that city. Willard is a splendid young man and will make good.

-Wanted: Salesman with car to Bennett were guests of Mrs. Nina call on dealers with a low priced Ashridge one day last week. 6,000 mile fabric and a 10,000 mile cord tire. $100 a week with extra commissions. Universal Tire & Rubber spent Saturday night with Mrs. Mit-Company. Michigan City, Indiana.

his office over the Marion Bank.

Mr. Merchant: Advertise your goods in the big special issue of the Crittenden Press. Advertising rates

If you know of anything new telephone that item to the Press office.

Mr. City and County Officer: Why not reserve a place in our big Christmas issue to use as a card of thanks and of good will to your friends.

Teachers: Please write or telephone your Christmas news for our special issue.

If you are going to have visitors Christmas telephone us.

Advertise in the Christmas issue of the Press.

FRANCES

Miss Nellie Pogue is visiting her

Mr. Burlie Burklow of Nortonville visited his family of this place Sun-

The Frances High School will put tinsky, of this city, died last week, on a play at the school auditorium in the near future.

Mr. Wm. Polk lost a fine cow last

Mr. J. R. Brashier has moved to Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Paris went his new residence on his farm on the Dycusburg road.

Mrs. W. Ray Oliver has gone to er, Mr. Don Harris.

Mr. Milton Yandell has returned a few days on business.

Mr. L. Simpkins left for Norton ville last week where he will work in the coal mines.

Mr. L. Simpkins and Oman Matthews were in Hopkinsville last week.

Mr. W. R. Gibbs lost a fine jersey heifer last week.

Mr. Collie Beavers lost two fine W. S. Lowery went to Henderson milch cows last week.

Mr. Ray Riley and Calvin Owens, G. W. Yates went to Sturgis Tues of Dycusburg, were visiting at the home of Mr. W. H. Teer Tuesday and Wednesday of last week.

> Miss Charline Hard returned home Friday from Illinois where she had Born to the wife of Mr. Henry Blake a fine boy on Nov. 26.

Miss Odith Simpkins and Miss Willa Belle Asbridge of Frances visited in Dycusburg last week.

Mr. Charlie R. Simons, of Paducal was in our section recently. Miss Ruby Brasher was in Frances recently. Mr. Herbert Perryman, of Dycus

Ervin Yandell visited Mr. Willie Humphrey of Aluminum Town last

WHITE ROSE

The pound supper at Ralph Brown's home Saturday night was well attended and everyone reported a nice

Edgar McKinney and family, of Lyon county, were guests of W. H. Campbell and family Saturday and

Mrs. Edd Hall and children spent

Mrs. J. C. Bennett returned to her home in Paducah after a few days B. F. Slaughter lost a valuable visit with her father, Billie Camp-> of Emmaus, attended the pound supper at Polk Brown's Saturday.

Mrs. Gus Crouh visited her mother, Mrs. Cora Asbridge Friday.

co visited Mr. B. Sunderland and family Wednesday. Mrs. Black has returned to her home in Metropolis, after a short visit with Mrs. J. McKinney.

Mrs. Sam Perkins is in very poor

Mr. Riley Brashier has moved to his new home. M:s. Tom Campbell and Mrs. Nell

Miss Pet and Georgia McClure tie Brown.

BAZAAR

Benefit School Improvement Club

At School Building Friday, Dec. 9th

Candy Booths, "Hot Dogs", Fish Pond for the little folks, a market where you can get Cakes, Pies, Etc. A beautiful assortment of fancy needlework, A Play in the Auditorium.

Doors to Bazaar open at 4 P. M. "Podunk Limited" begins at 8 P. M.

Gifts for Everbody!

Dolls of every sort and kind. Christmas cards, tags and seals. Games of all kinds for the children.

BOOKS-Books, Every kind and at all prices, but all of them good books. Where could you get a better gift?

Are You Wondering What to Give?

Fancy Gift Boxes of Toilet Water, Perfumes, Candies, Stationery, Manicure Sets, Toilet Sets, Kodaks-Make Wonderful Gifts for HER.

Cigars, Pipes, Fancy Tobacco Boxes, Safety Razors-Gifts for HIM.

Holiday Boxes In All Sizes

J. H. ORME

Main Street Drug Store

Marion, Ky.

多位为代别在为代别在为代别在为代别在为代别

ENGRAVED GREETING CARDS Jor Christmas & New Year

the offere Come as early as convenient and look over. the new Christmas cards and give us your order. now while our service is at its best. Be sure to ask to see the new HARCOURT CARDS. This line is exquisite.

The Crittenden Press MARION KY

We are also showing an unusually attractive line of monogram stationery made by this excellent house

多位为代别在为代别在为位别在为在为在的任务

Santa Claus Has Been at Our Store GIFTS FOR EVERYBODY!

TOYS! TOYS!

DOLLS! DOLLS! DOLLS! Dishes Autos Wheelbarrows Horns Wagons

A little boy said the other day, "It's just like stoppin' in at Christmas to visit Grady's." All kinds of good things to eat-Nuts, Fruits, Candies

Grocery and Variety Store MARION, KENTUCKY

Where Is It? First Door South Farmers Bank & Trust Co.

Marion, Ky.

Morris, Son & Mitchell

LEVIAS

Press Hill* and family moved to Marion Tuesday

Miss Edna Sigler has been visiting large congregation. her uncle, Joe Hunt, part of the week.

ed to Marion.

Miss Stella Sigler visited Mrs. V. Rev. Capshaw of Tolu.

farm at this place.

tives near this place the past week, and Sunday.

Cecil Sigler visited Otha Hunt on Thursday of last week.

Ed Newbell, wife and daughters went to Marion Saturday.

Misses Cordie and Stella Sigler at- Thursday of last week.

tended church at Piney Creek Sunday.

Shelly Matthews and family visit- monia. ed Coy Hill and wife Saturday and Sunday. *

Joe Hunt and son have moved to Sunday. his farm in this vicinity.

Carrigan and little niece visited Mrs.

Charley Murray and family visited Hosea Hunt and family Sunday.

Henry and Bob Hughes and Wal. Sunday.

LUNGARDIA is "without a rival" Mrs. Jno. Armstrong visited Mrs. moved to town. in ordinary or deep-scated coughs and Press Hatcher Sunday. colds difficult breathing and for the wonderful rsults following its use Monday. will astonish you and make you its life-long friend. Your money back Miss Crystal Hughes spent the if you have ever used its equal. Dan- week end with her brother, Watson, ger lurks where there is a cough or of Siloam. cold: Conquer it quickly with LUN-GARDIA. Safe for all ages 60c and $1.20 per botle. Manufactured by Lungardia Co., Dallas, Texas. For sale By

HAYNES & TAYLOR

DO YOUR TALKING -HOME-LONG DISTANCE

I. H. CLEMENT.

Physician and Surgeon

Gilchrist & Gilchrist

Refractive Specialists

EYES AND NERVES

Hours: 8 to 12 A. M., 1 to 5 P. M.

Office Frisbie Building, Main Street

Restaurant

Good Meals for 25c Give Us A Trial

Marion

GLENDALE

Bro. Capshaw preached an excel-lent sermon here Friday night to a Minnie Gass Tuesday.

Frank Hunt and family have mov. ther Hughes were married at the and Saturday, home of the bride's father, Alvin

Miss Gertrude Walker of Herrin. Terry were guests of Effic Wathen at Coy Hill has moved to his father's Ill., is visiting her cousin, Mrs Su-Herry were gue. Marion Friday.

of Livingston county, visited her rela- dren visited in Sheridan Saturday E. Johnson.

J. T. Matthews is visiting in this Mrs. F. M. Davidson, of Marion, visited Mrs. Mont. Morrell Tuesday of dyptheria Monday. of last week.

> Miss Eva Lynn and brother, Earle, went to Marion Saturday.

son, Tracy Rhea, were in Marion on day.

Lee Hughes is very ill with pneu-Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Hurley visited their daughter, Mrs. Will Todd, Mesdames Rita Carter and Belle father, Mr. Cole Moore, Sunday.

Mary Hughes Saturday and Sunday. of Miss Ollie Thomas last Sunday. J. O. Belt Sunday night.

ter O'Neal visited Winfield Hughes Misses Byrdie and Bonnie Lindsey Mr. Charley Sigler visited Mr. J. are the proud parents of a fine giel. and Susie Belt spent last Sunday Maxwell one day last week. with Miss Davie Hurley.

relief of Whooping Cough. The Miss Davie Hurley went to Tolu Belt Saturday.

BELMONT

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Crayne spent Mrs. N. Prowe is on the sick list afternoon with Mrs. Maria Campbell. Wednesday of last week with Mr. but is improving. and Mrs. Garrett Boyd. .

Mr. Herman Brown went to Ma- Nora Brantley this week. ion Saturday on business, Reed and Dollie Brown spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Me-Mican.

Velma Brown spent last Tuesday with Mildred Hill.

Mrs. Effie Guess was called to the bedside of her mother, Mrs. John Tucker.

Lola Brown spent Saturday night and Sunday with Ada Andrews.

Norman Brown spent Saturday and Office in Marion Bank Building Sunday with Eldred and Earl James.

Ada Andrews spent Friday with her sister. Mrs. Emons Asher.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Brown spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Arion Ol-

Eticlid Travis of Providence spent a few days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Guess.

GOING IT TOO HARD

C. M. Dillard, miner, Rochester St., Marion, says: "I have had very good results from Doan's Kidney Pills whenever I have been troubled with my kidneys. I have done a great deal of hard work and believe this and exposure caused my kidneys to become weak and act irregularly. At these times my back bothers me dreadfully ad if I take cold, causes severe pains just over my kidneys. I am in misery Mrs. G. E. Boston & Son | until I get rid of the trouble by taking | Doan's | Kidney Pills. I get Doan's Next door to H. V. Stone and it only takes a few to straighten Kentucky Doan's are sure a good kidney remedy and I am glad to recommend them. 60c, at all dealers. Foster- ilburn Co., fgr., Buffalo, N. Y. -Advtisement

FOREST GROVE

Mrs. *Ed Simpson visited Mrs. church.

Miss Jewell Walker and Mr. Lu- Clark visited at Fords Ferry Friday his home

Walker, Tuesday night, Nov. 29 by Mrs. Clyde Paris and Mrs. Ed visiting Mr. Ed Towery a few days Rev. Capshaw of Tolu.

Mrs. Leaw Rabb visited Mrs. Visiting Mrs. Leaw Rabb visiting Mrs. Leaw Rabb visiting Mrs. Visiting Mrs. Visiting Mrs. Leaw Rabb visiting Mrs. Visiti Miss Gladys Clark and Virginia a Brantley Tuesday.

Mrs. Louisa Vaughn and children, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Clark and chil-Saturday with her mother, Mrs. S. Mrs. M. E. Gass spent the day George Martin Saturday.

The little san of Bob Horning died

PINEY CREEK

Mrs. Robert Thomas and grand-ited Mr. Edd Riley and family Sun-Mrs. A. Sullivan and children vis-Loia Brown visited Ada Andrews Parr Saturday.

J. O. Belt visited W. A. Woodall

Misses Lee and Macy Rushing and Jim Moore and family visited his O. Elkins visited Mr. and Mrs. Ivan

Jennings Sunday Miss Mattie Lindsey was the guest Mr. and Mrs. Reed Woodall visited day of last week.

Miss Geneva Armstrong was the Mr. Iim Lewis Hunt and family guest of Narline and Clatic Stallions have moved to Mr. Hurley Guesa' farm.

Mr. Frank Hunt and family have wines last week.

FISH TRAP

Mr. and Mrs. Nace Prowe and fano- Paducah is visiting her this week. ily of this place visited Mr. and Miss Delpha Rogers was the guest Mrs. Tom Thurmond of near Black- of Miss Nannie McGee Sunday.

SHOP WITH US BY MAIL

find in your home stores

You will find great satisfaction in shopping with us

We have a competent staff of shoppers in our mail order department that will execute your orders to your entire satisfaction.

Ask us for prices and samples.

for what you can't

The nie supper at Enon was suite a success. The benefit went to the

Mr. Clauf Brantley, who has been Miss Catherine Terry and Helen a wireless operator has returned to

Mr. Edgar Walker of Sullivan is

Mrs. Leng Babb visited Mrs. No.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Wilson and two children visited Mr. and Mrs.

UNION GROVE

Mr. Jackson Blanton and Mrs. H. Blanton visited their uncle, Mr. Henry Canada last Saturday.

Mr. Reed Woodall and Miss Margie Belt were united in marriage Tues day of last week.

Miss Helen and Ruth Rucker visited Miss Elizabeth and Margarite

Little James Wigginton visited his grand oother at Crayne Saturday. Mr. H. N. Cannan was in town last Saturday on business. Mr. Jackson and Miss Hassie Stembridge were married on Tues-

HAFFAW MINES

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Davenport Mr. Offie Campbell got hart in the Miss Mannie McGee was the guest Mr. Walton Woodall visited Ben of Miss Stella Williams Saturday.

Mr. Fred Stinnett was in Fredoria

Mrs. Annie Stinnet's mother from

Miss Beatrice Lewis spent Sunday

Miss Gerlendene Humphrey attend-Miss Myrtle Lofton is visiting Miss, ed prayer meeting Sunday night at

Just Remember that Will Be

Headquarters for HOLIDAY GOODS

H. L. LAMB

BLACKFORD,

KENTUCKY

STROUSE & BROS.

For "HIS" Gift

The Largest Men's and Boys' store in southern Indiana-Ready with hundreds of things that will make suitable and practical gifts for men and boys, Come in and see the immense selections we are showing in

Ties Hosiery

Fur Caps Bath Robes House Coats

' Slippers

Mufflers Belts H'dkfs

Raincoats

Strouse & Bros

Parcel Post repaid on Mail Orders

At This Season of the Year

The trees drop their leaves and all nature prepares for the coming winter.

Nature is always looking toward the future. Insurance means preparation for the future.

Do you realize how cheap Fire Insurance really is? Ask us.

Crider & Woods Co.

C. W. LAMB

MISS NELLE WALKER

MARION, KY.