FARM BUREAU NOTES

LECTURE HERE TUESDAY EVENING

The second annual meeting of the Indiana Farm Bureau was held in the hotel. The meeting was called to order by Geo. W. B. Scharf, President of the Farm Bureau, who introduced the first speaker of the day, Mr. M. W. K. Armstrong, who has been active in the Farm Bureau for several years. Mr. Armstrong discussed the importance of the Farm Bureau in the present day world and its activities.

Mrs. M. W. R. Porter pictures attended the meeting and was actively engaged in the discussions.

ANNUAL CHRISTMAS SERVICE

This service, called the "Christmas Service," is an annual event sponsored by the Farm Bureau, and it is held on the second Sunday in December. The purpose of the service is to bring together farmers from all over the state to celebrate the Christmas holiday and to discuss agricultural issues.

The service begins with a musical program, which includes carols and other holiday songs. This is followed by a prayer by the Farm Bureau President, who sets the tone for the rest of the service. Then, a speaker is invited to talk about the Farm Bureau's activities during the year and its plans for the upcoming year.

The service concludes with a special presentation, which can include a gift交换, a special prayer, or a reflection on the history of the Farm Bureau. This is followed by a brief discussion period, where farmers can ask questions and share their thoughts.

The Farm Bureau Service is an important event for farmers, as it provides an opportunity to connect with others in the same field and to discuss the challenges and opportunities facing the agricultural community.
