LETTER FROM NEW JERSEY

LEON F. MACINTOSH

McIntosh, N. Ve.
Editor Crittenden Press

SAVE THE DATE

It is the tradition at the Crittenden Press to look forward to every spring with great excitement, as it is the time when the trees begin to leaf out and the weather begins to warm up. This year, we are particularly looking forward to the arrival of the tulips!

MOORE COMMISSION REPORT

Moore Commission, failed to qualify

A meeting of the Moore Commission was held yesterday, and the committee was unable to reach a consensus on several key issues. The commission was established to investigate the recent school closures and propose solutions.

FINANCIAL COURT IN SESSION

The Financial Court had its regular meeting on Monday. In addition to discussing the budget for the upcoming school year, the court also reviewed several financial reports from the district's schools.

ATTACKED ON STREET

Early Tuesday morning, a report was received that a citizen named John Smith had been attacked on Main Street. The incident is still under investigation, and the police are actively searching for the suspect.

LEVIAS

Levi has been a beloved member of the community for many years. He is known for his generosity and his willingness to help others.

FOREST GROVE

The Forest Grove Community Club held a meeting last night, discussing plans for the upcoming school year.

COMMUNITY CENTER

The Community Center will be hosting a bake sale next Saturday to raise funds for the annual school trip. The sale will feature a variety of baked goods, including cakes, cookies, and pies.

IRA HUNTER LIVES ON

Hunter is still living in the house he shared with his former wife, Jane. He often visits the local park and enjoys spending time with his dog, Max.

RICHARD BENSON

Richard is a retired teacher who enjoys spending his days gardening and reading. He often attends the local library to catch up on the latest books.

STANLEY CLINE

Stanley works as a teacher at the local high school and has been with the district for over 20 years. He is known for his dedication to his students and his love of teaching.

PASSED AWAY

On last Thursday evening, at the home of Mrs. Smith, a beloved teacher passed away. Mrs. Smith was well-known for her kind heart and her love of teaching.

Get Your Stomach Right

For those who are in need of a meal, the local food bank has a variety of options available. They offer a range of fresh fruits, vegetables, and other non-perishable items.

HENRY & HENRY

Henry and Henry are a local law firm that specializes in business law. They have been serving the community for over 50 years and are known for their expertise and dedication.

Monument Work At Marion

For this feature of monument building our sculptor, with his tools and the help of his assistants, worked wonder. Sculptor made a beautiful statue of the late Mrs. Marion, a well-known figure in our community for many years.

CARD OF THANKS

Mr. J. B. Baker and Mrs. E. A. Baker wish to express their appreciation to the members of the high school football team for their efforts in the recent game.

A COMMUNITY ROCKETEER

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Savage express their gratitude to the local fire department for their quick response during the recent fire at the local bakery.
