EASTER AT THE CHURCHES

Great Tragedies

The management in charge of the April Festival, a series of concerts, which were held at the Memorial Auditorium, were the most dramatic of the season. The concerts were a success and the audience was greatly impressed with the quality of the music presented.

The Road Law Says

The road law says that "no corporation, company, or individual shall, by means of any device, or manipulation of machinery, cause any unnecessary and unreasonably high or unreasonable speed to be made of any vehicle of any description, or by means of any device, or by any other means, cause any unnecessary and unreasonably high or unreasonable speed to be made of any vehicle of any description." This provision is intended to prevent the speeding of vehicles in a way that could be dangerous to other drivers.

City Ordinance

City Ordinance Number 45, which deals with the regulation of vehicles, has been approved. The ordinance requires that vehicles must be driven at a reasonable speed and that drivers must give way to pedestrians and other vehicles as required by the traffic regulations.

Dark Tobacco Pledges Soon To Be Signed

Governor A. V. Brown has signed the "Black Patch" bill which will regulate the sale of tobacco products:

In-Kind Service

The state of Kentucky has passed a law which requires that all factories producing tobacco products must pay a tax in kind. The tax is based on the value of the tobacco products produced. This is a significant step towards reducing the negative impact of the tobacco industry on public health.

WORLD WAR II

After the war, a large number of Kentucky men will return to work in the factories and industries of the state. This will provide an opportunity for the state to diversify its economy and reduce its dependence on tobacco.

SISTERS

By

KATHLEEN NORRIS

SOMETHING NEW.

"Sisters!" he was about to say.

"Yes, but I don't mean sisters. You've heard of the Sisters, of course. They're the ones who run the sisterhoods. They're the people who help the poor, the sick, the old, the young, and the neglectable. They are the ones who give their lives to the service of God and humanity."

Peter looked doubtfully at his father.

"I don't know what you're talking about," he said.

"No, of course not," his father answered. "I was just thinking of the Sisters who live in the convents.

They are the ones who take care of the sick and the poor. They are the ones who teach the children in the schools. They are the ones who run the hospitals.

They are the ones who have dedicated their lives to the service of God and humanity."

Peter looked at his father again.

"I don't understand," he said.

"No," his father answered. "You don't understand because you don't know the Sisters. You don't know what they do. You don't know how much they mean to the people who live in the convents. You don't know how much they do for the poor and the sick."

Peter looked doubtfully at his father again.

"I don't know what you mean," he said.
