CHAUTAUQUA TO OPEN MONDAY

Splendid Program Arranged for Marion Hill-Year-High Class Attractions to Be Presented

Next Monday the Big Redpath Chautauqua will open with one of the finest programs ever presented to the people of this section. The program is arranged by the management of Marion Hill and the Chautauqua Association and is under the direction of Mr. J. A. H. Reynolds, general manager of the circuit. The Saturday entertainment will be held at the Marion Hill Auditorium.

The Chautauqua will consist of a series of talks, dramas, concerts, dances, etc., given by various educational, literary, and artistic groups. The program will be presented in the Marion Hill Auditorium and will be open to the public at a nominal charge.

Great Comedy, "Friendly Enemies," a Chautauqua Attraction

A complete production of "Friendly Enemies," a comedy by George S. Kaufman and Morrie Ryskind, will be given at the Marion Hill Auditorium on the opening night of the Chautauqua. The cast includes many well-known actors and actresses, and the production promises to be a great success.

Tea at the Marion Hill Hotel

A tea will be held at the Marion Hill Hotel on the opening day of the Chautauqua. The hotel is located adjacent to the auditorium and will provide a convenient place for the public to enjoy refreshments during intermission periods.

Bridge Meeting Here Tuesday

Union and Chautauqua Continues

A bridge meeting will be held here Tuesday night at the Historic Schoolhouse. The meeting will feature a game of bridge followed by a dinner. The proceeds will be used to support the continued operation of the Historical Society.

FARM BUREAU NOTES

J. E. JOHNSON

General Manager

A good week's worth of sunshine and fresh breezes brought the farmers of Marion County a new beginning of the season. The weather has been cool and pleasant, and the crops are looking well.

The Marion County Farm Bureau will hold its annual meeting on the fourth Sunday in November. The meeting will be held at the Marion Hill Auditorium. The program will include reports from various committees, elections, and a report on the progress of the Farm Bureau during the year.

The Marion County Farm Bureau is an organization of farmers and farm workers that works to improve the economic and social conditions of farmers and their families. The Farm Bureau is a strong advocate for policies that benefit farmers and rural communities.

LEIN BUILDING

The new LEIN building will be ready for occupancy in the near future. The building will be located at the corner of Main Street and Third Avenue. The building will be used for office and storage space.

POPLAR MAROON GIRLS

WEARS IN TEXAS

A group of Poplar Maroon girls will be visiting Texas this month. The girls will be on a tour of the state, visiting various cities and towns. The girls will be accompanied by their chaperone, Mrs. J. E. Johnson.

The Poplar Maroon Girls are a group of young women who are members of the Poplar Maroon community. The girls are known for their lively and energetic performances, and their visits to various cities are always a hit.

MARIAN GILROY

The Marion County Farm Bureau is proud to welcome Mrs. Marian Gilroy as its new secretary. Mrs. Gilroy has a wealth of experience in the agricultural field and is well respected by her colleagues.

THE PRAYER OF A HORSE

MAN and beast share in many ways. When man is tired and has worried, has been ill or has been unable to find his power, he is sure to turn with a heavy heart to the great Gatekeeper. And when the horse is tired, has been ill or has been unable to find his power, he, too, is sure to do the same.

Man and horse share in many ways. When man is at home, the horse is at home; when man is abroad, the horse is abroad. Man and horse are alike in many ways. When man is well, the horse is well; when man is ill, the horse is ill.

How the Bank Serves the Farmer

YESTERDAY, the Farmers, an Annual meeting of which was held at the First Baptist Church last week, was a busy day for the officers and directors of the bank. The meeting was well attended, and the business transacted was of great importance to the farmers of the district. The following resolutions were adopted: (a) That the bank shall continue to operate on its present system, with such modifications as may be necessary to meet the changing conditions of the times; and (b) That the officers and directors shall take all necessary steps to improve the efficiency of the bank and to increase its resources.
