MARION WINS TWO GAMES

The Marion News Co. earned first place in the 1924 Ultimate Challenge Games (UCG) held in the Yardley Hotel in Marion on Monday, September 27. The news team defeated the Scioto County News Co. of Portsmouth, Ohio, in the finals, 3-2. This marked the second consecutive year that Marion News Co. has won the UCG. The previous year's winner was the Dayton Daily News Co. of Dayton, Ohio.

In the semifinals, Marion News Co. defeated the Lima News Co. of Lima, Ohio, by a score of 4-1. The Lima News Co. had previously defeated the Associated Press Midwest Bureau, 3-1, in the quarterfinals. The Associated Press Midwest Bureau, which is based in Chicago, Illinois, had secured a spot in the semifinals by defeating the Springfield News Co. of Springfield, Ohio, 4-3.

The Marion News Co. has a long history of success in the Ultimate Challenge Games. The team has won the tournament twice before, in 1922 and 1923, and has consistently been one of the top teams in the competition. The newsroom is known for its strong tradition of excellence and dedication to the craft of journalism.

The Ultimate Challenge Games is an annual event that brings together the best news teams from across the Midwest to compete in a series of challenges designed to test their skills and abilities. The games include writing, editing, photography, and design, among others. The Marion News Co.'s victory is a testament to the hard work and dedication of its newsroom.

When Washington Knocked Out Columbus

Not a prize fight, but a knock-out blow for the early development of Kentucky. Washington, D.C., vs. Columbus, Ky.

Here's the story in brief:
The first Congress was called upon to decide upon a location for the Capital of the United States.

Thomas Jefferson, then Secretary of State under President Washington, wanted it at Columbus, Ky.

If you would know why his plan failed—why Washington was finally selected as the Capital—

Read the Entire Interesting Story in the

Louisville Post

This is but one of the many interesting stories of little known facts about the 120 counties of Kentucky which will come from the pen of the Louisville Post's greatest special writer, Mr. Ralph Coghlan.

Some of the others are:
The story of Flourtown, one of the most valuable metal mines in industry. How Paducah got its High School gymnasium.

When King George ate Kentucky cake. The county which does not contain one illiterate child. Mayfield, "the old-fashioned gall," etc.

The Kentucky State Capitol, the ominous capitol of everything really worth while. How $300,000 was spent by one county to get out of the mud. How President Tylee was a real mine in Kentucky.

This series will begin Monday, October 2, and continue daily thereafter. Don't miss the first one.

City Planning Pays Well
Harmonious Planning of Heating (or Air-Conditioning) Systems.

The City Planner's responsibilities include:
- Developing plans for heating and air-conditioning systems in new and existing buildings.
- Ensuring compliance with building codes and regulations.
- Coordinating with architects and engineers.
- Making recommendations for energy-efficient systems.
- Conducting feasibility studies.

The City Planner's role is critical in maintaining the comfort and health of occupants in various types of buildings, ranging from residential homes to commercial offices and public facilities. City planners generally have a bachelor's degree in urban planning, architecture, or a related field, and may hold certifications such as LEED AP (Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design Associate Professional).

A City Planner's duties may also include:
- Reviewing and approving heating and air-conditioning systems.
- Conducting site visits to ensure system performance.
- Monitoring system operation and maintenance.
- Providing technical assistance to building owners and operators.
- Collaborating with other departments and agencies to address climate-related issues.

City planners play a vital role in promoting sustainability and efficiency in the built environment, contributing to the overall well-being of communities.
